FOREIGN AND COLONIAL PARCEL POST.

The sender of a parcel for any place abroad must fill up a Customs Declaration on a form provided for the purpose. There are two forms in use, one an adhesive form, to be used in connection with parcels for all British possessions and a few foreign countries, and the other a non-adhesive form, to be used for parcels for all other places abroad.

Sunday, July 16

London

[5th S. after Trinity.

Spent the morning in bed. Saw Bey. Walked over with David, George, Bertie & Harry to Buck House for lunch. To my tremendous surprise the King gave me the KCVO on the occasion of my wedding.

Spent the afternoon at Brook House, Bertie & George coming to tea. Dined quietly at Brook House.

Monday, July 17

London.

Shopped. The whole family mother - 2 daughters 2 sons 2 daughters-in-law (present & future) ~~6 nieces & 2 nephews~~ 2 grandsons & 6 granddaughters - were photographed at Spencer House by Christopher Jenkins.

E & J took George to Catherine Wendells wedding to Porchester, where we picked up some tips.

~~As~~ We lunched at Brook House & had a bridesmaids rehearsal at St. Margarets at 4.0 pm.

For tea all the family, including aunt alice came to Brook House to see the presents. A large crowd collected & we had to send for the police. Dined with alice & Maurice & [illegible] danced at Mayfairies after [illegible]

Tuesday, July 18

London & Broadlands Wedding Day

Spent most of the morning in bed. Tipped all the servants. Bertie, George & I lunched with David & Georgie looked in on his way to the church - all in No 2s.

Left at 1.50 pm for the church (St. Margaret's Westminster) & went to vestry door with David, who was my best man. Edwina arrived punctually at 2.15 pm just after the King, Queen & Queen Alexandra

We were married by 3.0 pm. N.Os held crossed swords for us to come out under & we were dragged by bluejackets on foot & later in charabancs to Brook House for the reception. Great Crowds everywhere. Went down to Broadlands in the car for our honeymoon stopping at 3 Belgrave Place for tea.

Wednesday, July 19

Broadlands

We stayed in bed till lunch time. Edwina's father & step mother came down in the afternoon to open a fete in the grounds. As soon as we went out we were photographed by press men, & so returned.

We drove them into the station at Southampton to catch their train.

Thursday, July 20

Broadlands

We allowed the local man to photograph us to-day & in the evening motored in to Southampton where we saw the film of our wedding.

[6th S. after Trinity.

We left Broadlands about 12.30 pm & motored over to Whenwell to visit Col & Mrs Jenkins with whom we lunched.

After lunch motored up to London. We gave our first dinner party David & Fruity being our guests, at Brook House.

Monday, July 24

London.

A busy day – shopping &c.
David asked me to come & see him before lunch. Lunched with Alice, Margarita & Dolla. Saw Margaret. ordered gowns from Purdey. Arranged with Miss Underhill for her to do secretary to us.

Dined (3/4 hour late) with Marjorie & Reeckie, & E's daddy. Went to
"The Dover Road" & saw Uncle Arthur & Cousin Nora there.

Tuesday, July 25

London & Paris

We left Victoria at 10.50 AM & were seen off by Alice, Louise, M & D Marjorie & Beechie, not to mention the Station Master & head man of Cook's. Pallitzer & Dimitri also crossed with us. Had a reserved coup' in the Pullman to Dover, were met by the Station master at Dover & conducted to one of the 2 state rooms on board. At the other side a ship's officer took us ashore to the Commissaire Spéciale who had been sent to meet us. Had a reserved compartment to Paris, which we reached about 6.40. Rasdill met us in our car & we motored to the Ritz, where we are staying.

Wednesday, July 26

Paris

Got up late & went shopping- Lunched with Pulitzer & Preston at their Flat- 27bis Quai d'orsay.

Went to the Folies Bergère in the evening & then on to dance at the Acacia.

Thursday, July 27

Paris.

We lunched in & dined in.
Marie Thérèse de Bourg de Bozas
(late Duchess de Vallombrosa) came in after tea.
We went to 'La Bouche' at the Théâtre Daumon afterwards.
Spent the afternoon planning our route & marking my maps.

Friday, July 28

Paris

~~Pulitz~~ Pulitzer came to lunch. We went shopping after lunch — galleries Laffayette, Pinet, etc.
Dined in & went to bed early

Saturday, July 29

Paris and Tours -

We left the Ritz at 11-10 AM in the car - E & J driving in turns, Rasdill & Waller behind. Thorogood is coming on by train with the heavy luggage.

We went via Versailles, Rambouillet Charlées, Chateaudun, Vendome & Chateaurenault, along the N10 road.

We could only get one poky little room between us at the Hotel Metropole at Tours, which we reached about 5.40, having stopped for 1¼ hours for lunch in a lane. The so called double bed was tiny. Even here fame has followed us, as the man who carried up our luggage told Rasdale he knew all about us.

Sunday, July 30

Tours and Angoulême

[7th S. after Trinity.

We left Tours at 11·20 AM, paying a short visit to the Cathedral on our way.

We motored along the N10 Road to Angoulême, via Chateaurenault, Poitiers & Ruffec, stopping for lunch in a field.

We arrived at the Hotel de la France about 5·30 pm., where we got a large room, having telegraphed for it from Tours.

Monday, July 31

Angoulême and Bergerac

We left Angoulême about 11.45 AM & motored to Bergerac via the N 139 & N 89 roads & passing Périgueux & Mussidan on the way. The N.10. road became too bad after Bordeaux we were told, hence this diversion. The roads were certainly excellent & we did over 90 miles in under 3 hours.

The Hotel de Landes, at Bergerac was thrilled at our arrival & they went to a lot of trouble. The geyser for heating the bath water had just burst. We wrote a lot of letters owing to having come so early.

Tuesday, August 1

Bergerac to Biarritz.

We spent a disturbed night as we felt convinced that a burglar was trying to get into our room. Also the main drain ran outside our bedroom window. We motored the 175 miles to Biarritz in 5¼ hours going via Mont de Marsan, where we picked up the N10 road again after having been on the N133. We are staying at the Carlton Hotel at Biarritz. After an excellent dinner went to an amusing open air dancing place called La Chaumière.

Wednesday, August 2

Biarritz & San Sebastian

We went out shopping in the morning & lunched at the Carlton. We left Biarritz by Car after lunch & motored to San Sebastian, crossing the frontier at Irun.

We have a magnificent Suite of rooms at the Maria Cristina Hotel at San Sebastian. Went for a walk after tea.

Came down to dinner an hour too early owing to our having forgotten to put our clocks back an hour.

Thursday, August 3

San Sebastian and Santander

We left San Sebastian about 11:45 & motored via Bilbao to Santander. We stopped on the way for a picnic lunch. Ena & Alphonso met us in Cars about 25 miles from Santander & I drove Ena home, while Edwina went with Alphonso.

Only court official are at present staying here at Las Magdalena.

After dinner, E & I played bridge with Ena & Alphonso & retired very late to bed.

Friday, August 4

Santander

I played tennis in the morning, & Eva took Edwina & me shopping in the town. The officers of the garrison came to lunch. Afterwards we went to the bull ring - Edwina driving with Eva & I with Alphonso & Dan a bull fight. There were 7 bulls. The 3 matadors were Sanchez Mejias, Chicuelo, & Lalanda, the former being quite exceptionally marvellous. He came up to our box afterwards & we all shook hands with him. The first part with the horses is quite revolting. In the evening we played Baccarat & won.

Saturday, August 5

Santander.

Edwina & I bathed this morning but the water was very cold.

Then we went to the Hotel Real & had cold meat & cocktails & danced. The Duchess d'Arcos & her two enormous boys have arrived here.

After lunch we all motored out into the mountains for tea. Eo) drove the two boys (Alfonsito (Prince of Asturias) & Don Jaime) out. Going back we took Alphonso & Alphonsito & averaged at least 50 miles an hour - comfortably running over a dog. I went up early after dinner but Edwina played bridge. Alphonso told me he would give me a decoration

Sunday, August 6

Santander

[8th S. after Trinity.

all of us, including the Ladies, went aboard the Spanish man-o-war España for mass & to be present when Alfonsito was made a midshipman. Everyone wore full dress, but as I only had No 3s. I wore these.

Wrote letters after lunch & played tennis after tea.

After dinner there was a "Verbena" - or sort of dancing entertainment on the local clubs tennis courts - Edurina wore a very nice Mantoni & large comb & flowers lent her by Ena. She looked lovely.

Monday, August 7

Santander.

We all went to the Fair in the morning. Edurne & I made ourselves quite sick on the swing boats. Alfonsito bought a sucking pig, which I took back on my lap in the car.

After lunch we went to a circus performance of lions, etc.

After dinner there was a dance for the people of Santander

Tuesday, August 8

Santander.

Alphonso left at 9-0 Hall & we all came down to see him off. He is going to Deauville to play Polo.

It rained most of the morning but it was fine enough to play tennis in the afternoon.

Alphonso gave me the Grand Cross of Isabella the Catholic Kolony.

Wednesday, August 9

Santander.

Edwina went off in the launch at 10.0 AM to watch the others bathe. I joined up with the party later on when we drove to Plaza de Toros or Bull Ring, where we saw the bulls for to-morrows fight. Edwina felt sick & so did not come down to lunch & we did not join in the excursion which the others made.

Thursday, August 10

Santander

Edwina felt better but I woke with a ragging cold so we spent the morning in bed. Went to another bull fight in the afternoon & saw a new Toreador made by Sanchez Mejias. This unfortunate man was tossed twice without being wounded. Lalanda having lost his temper & killed his bull anyhow was hooted down by the mob.

There was a small dance after dinner.

Friday, August 11

Santander.

We all motored at Co-Ash for about 76 Kilometres with the 'géants' & had a picnic lunch with them, then we said "goodbye" to them (the Duchesse d'Aosta & her 2 sons, the Duke of Fueggeli & Spoletti) & motored back taking Eva in our car. About tea time the Archduchess Isabelle with the Archduchess Gabrielle & the Archduke Albrecht came. They are relations of the Queen Mother.

We took Alphonsito (El Gumpo) out shopping in our car & looked in at the Circus. After dinner we played poker.

Saturday, August 12

Santander

We played tennis in the morning. E for the first time for a year.

In the afternoon we motored out to a lovely country house at a place called Los Fragas. We took Alfonsito out & Ernst him back. On the way out over a terrific hole we broke the main leaf of our off front spring. Luckily it held till Las Fragas, where we discovered it & repaired it temporally. After great discussion we finally decided to start on the morrow for Bearritz.

Sunday, August 13

Santander, San Sebastian & Biarritz.

(Bilbao)

[9th S. after Trinity.

We left at 9.30 A.M. & did not reach Biarritz till 9.30 P.M. (French time & 8.30 P.M. Spanish time) as we had to proceed cautiously on account of an broken spring.

We lunched with Don Luis Orueta at the Club Marítimo de Bilbao (at Las Arenas). I upset a cart load of pigs, which was on the wrong side of the road & then pulled across in front of us - No casualties.

The Archduchess, Sh. also turned up for lunch & again when we had tea with the Queen Mother at Miramar (San Sebastian). We are staying at the Carlton.

Monday, August 14.

~~In the Biarritz Train a Paris.~~ Biarritz

We tried to go shopping at Biarritz, rather unsuccessfully as there is a fete on. We lunched & dined at the carlton & caught the Train-de-luxe for Paris at 10.30 PM from Biarritz ville. Edwina & I shared a sleeper with Weller & Thoragood next door. The Rolls Depôt mended the car to-day & Randall starts for Paris to-morrow.

Tuesday, August 15

Paris.

We reached the 'Quai d'Orsay' station about 11.15 AM & went to the Ritz, where we lunched & are staying. I went to see the German Embassy in the afternoon, while Edwina tried to go out shopping, but failed as it was a holiday. I also went up the Eiffel Tower.

In the evening we dined with the Maharaja of Bikaner at the Ritz & went to the "Revue de la femme" at the "Ambassadeurs" with him.

Wednesday, August 16

Paris.

We had the Maharaja of Bikaner & his son Bijjit Singh & one of their staff to lunch. Shopped before lunch.

Spent the afternoon getting the route to Mainz from RAC & Michelin.

Dined alone at Hotel & wrote letters after dinner

Thursday, August 17

Paris and Verdun.

We left the Ritz about 11.30 & motored to Verdun – 150 miles, reaching it at 5-30 P.M., with an hour off for lunch. We went via Meaux and Chalons & it was very interesting, also rather pathetic, to see the devastated areas and ruined houses.

Verdun itself is still a mass of shambles but an enterprising Company has built a hotel called the Coq Hardi, which is crammed with American sight-seers, where we stayed.

Friday, August 18

Verdun & Wolfgarten

We left Verdun at 10·30 AM & shortly afterwards had to stop as our luggage grid got bent over a bump. We proceeded cautiously, via Metz & left French territory at Villing where we entered the new neutral 'Saar' Territory, which is under French Control, so we had to pass another French Customs office on leaving 'Saar' at Theley & at Selbach we passed into Germany without any difficulty. We gave a Police Officer a lift to Idar, by request, straight to his office. We bought Petrol (3/4 tank full - 5700 marks) at Kreuznach & did not reach Wolfsgarten (215 miles) till 10·0 PM

Saturday, August 19

Wolfsgarten.

We went all over the house & place to-day. Too fascinating seeing the old place again after 9 years. Very little is changed, though everything seems smaller to me, as I have grown twice the size in the meanwhile. Uncle Ernie, Aunt Anor, the 2 Loegs (Dore Lu) Georgina, von Massenbach, Fräulein von Brixthöven & Graf Hardenberg are here. Don is only 15 but enormous, bigger than me in fact. Lu is normal. Georgina seems to have shrunk, but is otherwise the same. We dined on the verandah place over the steps. We motored to the Rosenhöhe.

Sunday, August 20

Wolfsgarten.

[10th S. after Trinity.

We spent the whole day here going over more rooms & the grounds.

Monday, August 21

We motored into Darmstadt. I cashed a cheque for £50 + got over ℳ 260000 marks for it! Looked all over the New Palace + also shopped. Everything is a fearful price. Each cigarette costs 4 marks - a slab of common chocolate 20 marks! Some imitation silk for a jumper 2000 marks + so on. Everybody is still very polite to Uncle Ernie + bows to him in the streets. In the afternoon we motored into Kranichstein, the ladies + gentlemen going ahead in a carriage. Uncle Ernie has all his hunting coaches + state carriages here on view for the public.

Tuesday, August 22

Wolfsgarten

We motored over to the old Heiligenberg to-day with Uncle Ernie & went all over the old place. It is very changed inside & the grounds are in terrible dis-repair. We then motored on to Aunt Marie's at Schönberg where we had lunch & stayed till tea. She is giving & leaving to me pictures of my ancestors - Papa, Mama, his father & mother & his mother's father & mother. It rained while we were on the road but was fine in between

Wednesday, August 23

Wolfgarten

It rained nearly all day and I wrote letters.

Thursday, August 24

Wolfgangsee

We went into Darmstadt for shopping in the morning. Bought Louise a real mole stole for 2 gns. Went to Rüsselsheim in the afternoon to see about a Bosch magneto, sparking plugs & horn. Went over the factory, with old Mr Opel himself. Bank is now £601 to £1

Friday, August 25

Wolfgarten

Went to Frankfurt in the morning for shopping & spent 1½ hours unsuccessfully at the bank, & came back late for lunch.

Tried Doris's 1.7 HP. Motor bike & came off in a muddy bend.

Edwina had her ears pierced at Koch's & I bought her a large aquamarine drop & 2 earrings to match.

Saturday, August 26

Wolfsgarten

Went to Frankfurt again and bought a tiny eureina camera, a Kodak, a large Zeiss glass, 2 baby Zeiss glasses + various accessories. Edwina got pins. Found Peter Murphy standing near the car when we got back. Great surprise.

Went to Russelsheim on the race track. Took our car round the Track at 72 m.p.h. Went about 100 mph with ~~[illegible]~~ Joerns in the car he went 204 kph + beat the worlds record. ~~[illegible]~~ (1 Kilo in 18 secs)

P

Sunday, August 27

Wolfsgarten

[11th S. after Trinity.

We motored into Frankfurt with Dorothea & fetched Peter, who spent the day at Wolfsgarten. Took 2 reels of cinema film with my new baby machine. Peter played the Piano after lunch. Alexi Erbach's wife & eldest son came to dinner.

Monday, August 28

Wolfsgarten and Verdun

We left at 9.30 AM sharp from Wolfsgarten & crossed the frontier without much difficulty. We reached Verdun at 7.0 P.M., having run 215 miles by the cyclometer on a single filling of the petrol tank. Taking 1½ hours off for lunch, German Customs, Swiss Customs & French Customs we averaged 27 m.p.h. the whole way, over some bad roads too.

We are staying at the Coq Hardi Hotel, as before.

Tuesday, August 29

Verdun & Paris

We left Verdun at 10.30 AM & reached Paris at 5.0 PM. 160 miles by the Cyclometer - nearly 30 m.p.h. with lunchear interval off. We are staying at the Ritz. Georgie & Nada arrived shortly after us & are staying here with us as our guests.

After dinner we went first to the Acacia to dance & then on ~~the~~ to Zellis in Montmartre which was most amusing - only getting back at 4.0 AM

Wednesday, August 30

Paris.

We Spent most of the morning in bed & all went out shopping in the afternoon.

In the evening we went to see 'La Bouche' again & came across 'Boobie' (one of the Duchess of Acosta's boys) & a Spanish gentleman, both of whom we took on to Zelli's.

Boobie danced with a pretty 'local girl' & then foisted her off on me —

We went home at 3.0 AM — Georgie & Nada going off to another place.

Thursday, August 31

Paris

I wrote letters nearly all day – still 'wedding correspondence'. Edwina shopped with Nada.

We went to the Grand Guignol & saw 2 horrors – 'Un concert chez les Fous" & "Au Téléphone".

Afterwards we danced at Pigalls and El Barocco's till 2.30 Am.

Friday, September 1

Paris.

We shopped most of the day or ~~do~~ lunched at the little place where one can ~~eat~~ get the best duck in the world.

We dined at the Ritz & went again to the Grand Guignol, where they have a new set of plays on.

~~Sat~~ Hyam Sol - Brocanteur & one I saw here in 1919 - L'angoisse:

We danced at the Acacia and Zelli's - 2 of Nada's friends - Contes Braganza & Boigne joining up. Got back after 4.0 A.M.

Saturday, September 2

Paris & London

Edwina & Durent out shopping, (boot shop, ch.) We caught the noon train from the Gare du Nord to Calais, where we were met by the Commissionaire Spéciale & crossed to Dover, where Maria met us, as she is staying near there. We got up to London at 7.30 pm & were met by Alice Mr D, who accompanied us to Brook House, where Georgie Nada are staying with us. We dined with Marjorie & Baeckie.

Sunday, September 3

London & Pulteridge

[12th S. after Trinity.

~~the~~ Boy, Mama & Louise arrived at ~~the~~ Brook House in the morning, also Alice McD. and all stayed to lunch.

Attended Nina's wedding at the Russian church in the afternoon & had tea at Claridges with the Vanderbilts. Motored down to Pulteridge Bury to stay with the Cassels. Mrs. Cassel, Lady Helen Cassel, Mrs Jenkins & the Cassel children are here. I have been to this house before at a meet of the Hertfordshire hounds.

Monday, September 4

Pultenidge

Wrote letters all day.
E took the others out in the car in the afternoon.

Tuesday, September 5

Pulteridge & London

Left Pulteridge very early in car at 11.30 AM & went to London where we all lunched at Brook House with Mrs. Cassel & Nurse Harrison Shopped all the afternoon. Joe dined with general Vanderbilt & Grace at Claridges (also Percy Cust) & went to 'Snap' at the Vaudeville afterwards.

Wednesday, September 6

London

½ day

I spent the morning at the West London Shooting School ~~with~~ learning to shoot better, with Mr Richmond Watson.

We lunched with Lady Cunard. Met an interesting man from the Foreign Office called Harold Nicholson there, also Jack Potter, a delightful American, who was ADC to David & is a friend of Graces.

~~Stopped all the afternoon. We dined at Claridges with General~~ ~~Vanderbilt~~ Fetched Edwina's sister Nancy at Victoria. Dined at home & went to a thrilling play called The Bat.

Thursday, September 7

London & Frogmore.

We motored down to Frogmore cottage this morning with Mary & spent the day with Mama, Louise & Alice's 2 girls, Cecile & Tiny.

Went over Frogmore House, where I was born, and the Mausoleums. Stayed to dinner & motored back afterwards.

Friday, September 8

London

We went down to the Shooting School in the forenoon. Edwina tried her hand and got on wonderfully well.

Shopped all the afternoon, having lunched with Sir Felix & Lady Helen Cassel at Claridges.

Gave a dinner-play-supper party to grace, Jack Potter, Charlie Rhys & of course Maria. Claridges Double or Quit at the Aldwych & dancing at the Savoy afterwards.

Saturday, September 9

London.

Shopped all the morning. We went to the Shooting School after lunch & also tried a rifle for Edwina.

David & Fruity came to dinner & afterwards we split up to go to the theatre. They went to Snap & we went to St. George's Hall where we saw Maskelyne's conjuring.

Sunday, September 10

London

[13th S. after Trinity.

Grace & the 2 Misses Lewis came to lunch.

Wrote letters all day.

Left cards on Nancy & Christ at Spencer House & wrote our names in Queen Olga's book.

Had high tea at 6.0 pm & caught the 7.30 pm train from Kings X. where Edmund & I shared a sleeper.

I sent Nancy off to Bournemouth by the 2.0 pm train.

Monday, September 11

Dun Robin

We arrived at Inverness about 9.30 AM & changed for the Golspie train. Arrived at Dun Robin private station about 2.30. Found only Lady Edmann & General Sir Tom Bridges in, the others being out grouse driving. Had lunch & a bath & wrote letters.

Rest of the party (besides our hosts - Geordie & Eileen Sutherland) are Bertie, Ned Grosvenor, Betty Butler, Lady Patricia Ward, Miss Stuart, & Reggie Fellows.

Tuesday, September 12

Dun Robin & Loch Choire

We stopped at the "Sutherland Home Industries" & saw Gordie's Engine in the morning.

In the afternoon we saw the Dun Robin Museum.

After tea we motored to the Stalking Lodge at Loch Choire stopping at Kildonan Lodge on the way where Edwina's daddy is staying.

We have 2 adjoining rooms here but both slept in my room to-night.

Wednesday, September 13

Loch Choire

Edwina & I went off stalking together to-day. & we left about 10.0 AM & rode out on Ponies & then walked.

I got one stag - 8 points 14½ stone. Edwina was going to take next shot but as the stalk would take too long & she was tired she went home. I remained on for 1½ hours but we got between 2 hinds & couldn't move with out one or the other hinds seeing us. So I didn't get another shot.

Thursday, September 14

Loch Choire

To-day Edwina & I joined Fred Grosvenor & Betty Butler salmon fishing on the Mallart: We had no luck but we carried guns & Fred & I each got a brace of grouse.

We came home fairly early, about 4.30 pm -

Friday, September 15

Loch Choire.

Edwina went out stalking with Geordie & had one shot at a great distance, which she missed. I went out on the Dalnessay beat - 9 miles away & stalked all day but saw nothing till 4 o pm.

Got 1 stag 7 points & the bullet hit a small one, which I had to finish off. Geordie & Eileen also each hit ~~a~~ a stag & wounded it, the former "in the same way as mine," though they couldn't kill theirs.

Saturday, September 16.

Loch Choire and Dunrobin

It was such a foul day that Eileen, Edward & accompanied Bertie to Dunrobin in the morning, as the latter had to return to Balmoral. The others stayed Geordie & Rosemary had a blank day. Ned & Betty caught some salmon. I wrote a lot of letters. Eric Edmund & Col. Murray joined the party to-day.

Sunday, September 17

Dear Robin

[14th S. after Trinity.

It rained a lot to-day & I wrote letters all day.

Edwina went with the others to church. Her daddy & stepmother came over from Rovie to lunch, & stayed to tea.

Played Poker again in the evg. Down £ 8-160. & must be up about £ 10 on our time here.

Monday, September 18

Dear Robin & Clumes -

We left Dunrobin about 11.20 Ash, the train being stopped for us at the Castle Station.

We changed at Inverness & caught an earlier train than we expected & so no car was there to meet us at Blair Athole. & Marjorie's car came after ½ an hour & we drove to Clunes Lodge which the Camdens have taken.

Besides Lord & Lady Camden, their daughter Lady Diana Pratt, & the Brackies, Mr & Mrs Hoey. Charlie Rhys & Sir William Rose-

Tuesday, September 19

Clumes

It was too misty to go on the far beat, high up; so we went a little later on to a near beat & had 4 drives, 2 before lunch & 2 after.

Edemina joined our party with the other ladies at lunch time & stayed on for the rest of the day. She came to my butt for the third drive & got 3 birds.

Played $7\frac{1}{2}$, a new form of card gambling game in the evening. I won more than anyone else.

Wednesday, September 20

Clunes

To-day we went as the far west & spent 9 hours away from home. The Ladies did not come. Edwina went into Pitlochry with Marjorie & then tried borrow bicycles fishing unsuccessfully.

Thursday, September 21

Clunes

~~the~~ Breckie & Marjorie, Charlie, Irene & we two went to Trinafour, hard Henry Neville's place (Breckie's ~~gr~~ maternal grandfather) for a shoot. We had 5 drives & got 42 braces between 8 guns, Charlie & I getting about top score with 7½ & 7 brace respectively.

We changed at Trinafour & motored to Crusan station where we caught the 7-18 pm night train to Euston.

Friday, September 22

London

We arrived at 8.20 pm; a bit late owing to the fog. On arrival at Brook House we found Mrs. Cassel, Mrs. Jenkins & Mary there.

Shopped a lot. I had lunch with Aunt Louise, as Mama was up for the day & lunching there too.

She came to Brook House afterwards & I took her to the station where I met Louise too.

Mrs. Jenkins. Mama & we 2 went to Dear Brutus.

Saturday, September 23

London

Shopped all the forenoon.
Lunched in.
Mary left in the afternoon.
Boy came to tea.
The Kippers (Bradford) came to dinner we went to the "Last of Eve" at His Majesty's..
I took the tickets just before leaving & they took some time in finding them.
Sent the Kippers back to King's Langley in our car
after the play.
Edwin's boots arrived.

Sunday, September 24

London.

[15th S. after Trinity.

~~the~~ Mrs Cassel left Brook House, so we are alone here now.

We motored down to Farnham Royal for lunch with Edwinals Cousins - Winifred & Reggie Walter, who are looking after her Labrador puppy - Nigger.

Looked in at Frogmore Cottage on the way back but found Mama out.

Saw the Dr. Georgie & Vada & Admiral Kerr on return.

While Edwina was with her Step-grandmother Alice I went round to the Wave's flat where G & N are

Monday, September 25

London

Shopped & went to Barkers about the new car.
Lunched at 8 Cambridge gate with Uncle Micha. afterwards went shopping with georgie & the Wave. The farmer joined the RNC at Greenwich to-day.

We had a dinner party at Brook House - Georgie, Nada, Boy Wave & Jack Potter & went to the Cabaret Girl. Went round & saw George Grossmith between the acts.

Danced at the Frolics club later.

Tuesday, September 26

London Bournemouth

Shopped. Saw Mama's new rooms, which used to belong to Henriett Phipps, at Kensington Palace & brought Mama & Louise back to lunch.

Drove to Bournemouth in 3½ hours and we are staying with L's Grannie & Miss Cassel at Branksome Dene.

Wednesday, September 27

Bournemouth, Southampton & RMS Majestic

We left Branksome Dene at 11·0 AM & drove in to Southampton with Cousin Anna. At the Docks we were received by the manager of the White Star Line, the Commodore of the WSL Fleet & a host of other officials. Norah Nada also came to see us off. We were interviewed & photographed with the Captain by several pressmen, but we escaped the lot who had awaited for us at ~~London~~ Waterloo!!

The ship (SS Majestic) sailed at 1·0 PM. The Sea was moderate.

Danced in the lounge after dinner.

Thursday, September 28

RMS Majestic - At Sea.

It was fairly calm to-day & there was little motion on the ship, even so the water in the swimming was slopping about fearsomely. Majestic is a fine ship - the largest in the world (56000 tons) & was built by the germans (under the name Bismarck) I believe.

We have got D83-85 suite - (bedroom, bathroom, dressing room wardrobe room & sitting room) all for the price of a single cabin & bath room for advertisements' sake, I believe.

Danced after dinner.

Friday, September 29

RMS Majestic – at-Sea

QUARTER DAY.

There was quite a heavy swell to-day & as Edwina insisted on taking Mother pills she felt rotten & we had our meals in the dirty room.

Saturday, September 30

RMS Majestic - at Sea.

The weather was a little better to-day, but we still had our meals in our cabin.

The Commodore showed me round the bridge to-day.

We passed a schooner, deserted & on fire & stopped to investigate.

Sunday, October 1

RMS Majestic – at Sea.

[16th S. after Trinity.

The Chief Engineer showed me round the Engine Rooms this morning.

Although a gale sprang up at 1.0 AM (when I had to close our scuttles) Edwina felt much better & we had our meals in the Restaurant again.

Went up to the Officers Quarters in the "Boys" for a yarn with them.

Monday, October 2

R.M.S. Majestic – at Sea.

A calm & lovely day.
We dined with the Director on board – Major Curry &
a party in the immense Dining Saloon. There was dancing & singing in the Lounge afterwards.

Exchanged a number of radiograms with people we knew in America.

The Sculptures institute sent 6 pages of marconigram asking us to their banquet on
Oct. 10th.

Tuesday, October 3

RMS Majestic & New York.

We arrived at Quarantine about 12-30 P.M. & the Customs people gave me an 'IA' (Instant attention). Over 20 cameras were collected on A deck & we were made to face this battery. Quite 8 movie cameras were there, who also insisted on taking close ups. On landing we were met by Col. Thompson & his daughter, Mr Kern & 2 detectives, Paul Hammond & Mr. Warburg, In all 12 tickets to meet us were issued & we got away with little trouble & are staying at the Ritz Carlton Hotel in New York. We were interviewed by a dozen reporters. Dined at the St. Regis with the Kerns, went to the Zieg Field Follies & later to Mr. Kendalls, at the Capitol Theatre where several composers & Paul Whiteman's orchestra played

Wednesday, October 4

New York.

We saw 20 Press Men in an office room at 11.0 A.M. Col Thompson brought Lt. Neilson (USN) who has been attached to me by the Navy Department, to see me. Were photographed again several times. Saw 'Baby' Dermarest. Lunched at the Ritz with Mrs. Hawkins. Motored to Meadow Brook with Paul Hammond to watch the polo, in which America beat the Argentine. good game.

On return Mr. Glaenzer brought Douglas Fairbanks & his wife (Mary Pickford) to see me. They offered me their house in California. Gave dinner to Jerome Kern & Andre Savory at Ritz. Saw a thrilling play "The Cat & the Canary" & went on to dance at the Palais Royal where Paul Whiteman's orchestra was playing.

Thursday, October 5

New York.

Called on Col. Thompson to arrange about Los Angeles visit. Went to Kuhn Loeb & Co to open account etc. Took so long owing to traffic that I had to come back by Sub way with Mr. Somers (Mr. Lansing's Secretary). Missed lunch, but went to the Baseball game - Yankees V. Giants (World's Series). All the photographers and reporters were there again as we were the guests of Col. Ruppert, the owner of the Yankees. Saw Babe Ruth in the evening. Gave dinner at Ritz to - Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, George Kern, Kendall, & Charlotte & Count Zichy. Went to George White's Scandals & hoisted him up in the intermission. Went on to "The Plantation". Fairbanks was recognized & mobbed everywhere.

Friday, October 6

New York.

Mr. Somers came this morning saved our life by doing Secretary for us all day. We motored out with Mr. Felix Warburg to his home at White Plains, where we lunched. Afterwards we had an enjoyable ride E looking particularly well on her horse. We knocked a Polo Ball about, also & had a swim. On return we finished off with Mr. Somers & his secretarial work. Col. Thompson called for us & we dined with his daughter - Mrs. Pell at 777 Madison Avenue. Went to a revue play called 'Shore Leave' & on to a dancing place called "The Tent".

Saturday, October 7

New York Albany

Mr. Somers came & paid the hotel bills, did the tips, etc. Col. Thompson fetched us at 9.30 AM & drove us to the Grand Central Station, where his Private Car "Boston" was awaiting us. I met the various Railway officials concerned in our trip & thanked them. Edwina & I each have a cabin in the car, there being a double bunk in her cabin.

As it was raining we did not go to the meeting with Col Thompson, as arranged, at Rhinecliffe, but went to the Movies at Albany, the Capital of the State, which we reached at 2.50 P.M. at 5.0 P.M. we moved on to Fort Ticonderoga, reaching it at 10.0 P.M.

Sunday, October 8

Fort Ticonderoga, Adirandacks, Saratoga, Albany.

[17th S. after Trinity.

After breakfast we were shown over Fort Ticonderoga by the Pells, to whom it belongs. The fort was built by the French in 1756 and was captured by the British in 1759 & then changed hands several times. We also saw the French lines built by Montcalm, when he surprised the attacking English, under Abercrombie, on July 8th 1758 & beat them (4000 : 1500)

We lunched at the Pells house "The Pavilion" & motored afterwards 130 miles to Albany through the Adirandacks. The foliage was too lovely. We stopped at Saratoga for tea & rejoined our Pullman at 8.0 PM at Albany.

Monday, October 9
Niagara Falls, USA & Canada.

We reached Niagara Falls about 9.0 AM & spent the day in seeing them. A deputation of 6 (4 men 2 ladies), chiefly Canadian met us & conducted us round in cars. We saw both the American & Canadian Falls from above, & below in a steamer called "The Maid of the Mist". We saw Power Houses on both sides & were shown over them. We had forenoon cocktails at Dr. Grant's house, where David launched on his Canadian tour, & tea there also. His house is in Canada & has a fine view of the falls. Mr. & Mrs. Shoellkopf gave us lunch at the Country club & we went up past the rapids & whirlpool in a private trolley car later. Judge Nesbit & his wife & Mr. Grier were the others.

Tuesday, October 10

Chicago.

We arrived at Chicago about 9 o AM & were met by a crowd of reporters & photographers as well as a number of prominent citizens. The original plans had included a procession with a Bagpipe band & mounted police, but this had luckily been stopped. Count Thermotti lent me his car, which I drove with him to "Swift's" Stockyard", where the owner showed me over. E stayed with Mrs. Countess who gave us a lunch party of over 60. Not having been warned I had a soft collar on, while all the Generals, etc. wore their British Decorations. It rained hard all the afternoon, so our drive to the country was postponed. E had tea at the Casino. I had my haircut. The Daily News rang up to ask if they might take a photo of the haircut. We dined at the Iron Lantern with Mrs Countess who forgot to invite her husband. Went to the Maries, more photos & then off.

Wednesday, October 11

In the Train - Chicago to Hannibal.

~~When~~ We stopped at Kansas City at 10.30 AM, but neither Edwin nor I had got up in time to take a walk.

The name of this special Private Car is "Boston" & it holds 7 - Col. Thompson. Mr & Mrs Pell, Mr & Mrs Neilson & us 2. Also 3 Nigger attendants 3 men servants, 2 maids & a Railway official.

Thursday, October 12

In the train - Chicago to Hemboldt.

When the train stopped at Trinidad a lady reporter came on board whom Edwina saw.

The train went up the Raton pass, with another Engine astern.

We dined at Albuquerque & bought Indian curios from the Museum. I saw a lady reporter at Albuquerque.

Friday, October 13

Humboldt

Went through the Glorieta mountains. Reached Humboldt at 4.0 P.M. This is a small mining town of 1100 inhabitants, belonging to ~~Cola~~ the Consolidated Arizona Smelting Co, of which Col. Thompson is President, Mr Bell & Mr. McNiel, who is also here, are Vice-Presidents & Manna has a lot of money in it. We moved up to the rest house where we had a bath & slept. After dinner with Mr. Calvocoressi, the superintendant, we attended a political meeting of the democratic party & a good dance afterwards. We also went over the ~~[illegible]~~ Mill & saw the smelter at 11.0 P.M.

Saturday, October 14

Humboldt

Dressed in riding things & rode to Thayer about 7 miles out. We all rode on mexican saddles & E had to ride one too, astride. She had a lazy horse, so later we changed.

At Thayer we got into cars & motored on about 9 miles to the Blue Bell mine. Pell, Nicholson & I went down in the skip to the lowest level - 1400 ft & explored 2 galleries where they were working copper.

We lunched at the mine and then returned, Nicholson & I alone riding back from Thayer. The Calvocoressco's had the mine staff up to dinner & they all came down to see the "Boston" afterwards. An engine came & fetched us about 10.0 PM

El Tovar – Grand Cañon.

[18th S. after Trinity.

We reached El Tovar Hotel about 10-30 AM & were photographed doing so. We took a drive along the rim before lunch & a drive out to Suicides rock & further on after lunch. We watched the sun set over the Painted Desert & stayed till it was dark, when we had over 30 miles to drive home. The Cañon is on an average 13 miles wide, 1 mile deep & 200 miles long. It beggars description. Our windows in the hotel over look it.

After a special (though disastrous to the females) dinner we went over to the Hopi House & saw "Toc" & some other Indians do various dances in our honour.

Monday, October 16

El Tovar. Grand Canyon.

We got up at 7-30 AM & after breakfast were photographed with "Joe" & other Indians of the Hopi Tribe We also were taken with the various officials who have been looking after us with the Canyon as a background. We left at 9-15 AM - Edwin, Nielson & I, with Jim Stevens, the guide & reached the Plateau at 12-15 having proceeded along the Bright Angel Trail for 5 miles. We got a marvellous view of the Colorado river 1300 ft below us. We got back at 4-0 PM. Bought Indian goods. after another special dinner we went to a 'Movie' show of the Kolb brothers passing down the Canyon in boats.

Tuesday, October 17

In the Train - El Tovar to Pasadena.

We watched the Sun rise over the Grand Canyon & then went down to the "Boston" for breakfast We left at 8.20 A.M. & spent the day in the train. at the junction — Williams - the El Tovar Hotel Manager Mr. S. Benedetto said good bye to us The Colonel rejoined our party at Ashfork from Humboldt. Steve Pell left after dinner to go to a car which was running direct to ~~San~~ Sanfrancisco. Whither he is proceeding for a couple of days.

Wednesday, October 18

Hollywood.

We reached Pasadena at 7.0 P.M. & were met by Charlie Chaplin, himself. The Neilsons & us drove with him in the Fairbanks' Rolls Royce to the latter's house at Beverley Hills, Hollywood which they have lent us. After breakfast we bathed & played the pool, & avoided photographers, etc. ~~[illegible]~~ We lunched at a movie actors' haunt in Hollywood & later visited the Paramount Studios when C.B. de Mille was photographed with us, with a new film scene, at ball room of a foreign Kings. We also saw scenes from "The World's Applause" and "Nobody's Money" being filmed. Later we saw C.C's studio & in the evening saw the Fairbanks Film Rolls Hood. Night of the

Hollywood.

We bathed in the morning & rehearsed & worked out the Film we are all going to act. After lunch we all made up & Charlie Chaplins men came up & we shot 4 or 5 scenes of the play. It was fascinating work. Edwina & I are 'lovers' in it. My valet Thorogood takes the part of the butler. Neilsons Mrs. Pell are adventuress & as yet no one else has been filmed. The British General called & wanted to arrange for us to be feted here but we declined. There reporters & photographers came again. We saw "the Kid" & "The Pilgrim" in the house, with a band playing music too.

Friday, October 20

Hollywood.

We "worked" all day.
(2.0 A.M. Charlie Chaplin sent up a "Hawaiian Concert-party" who serenaded us)
10.30 A.M the Camera arrived. The Colonel, Mr. Bell (who arrived from 'Frisco) Mrs. Neilson, & everybody else joined in to-day including Charlie Chaplin without his "make up". Jackie Coogan, who played in "the Kid" came to lunch with his father & acted in our film too. We bathed before lunch, & visited the Fairbanks' Studio, where the "Robin Hood" scenes were still up.

Saturday, October 21

Hollywood.

This morning we finished off the film, with "Charlie" as himself in it. We bathed & after lunch went for a motor drive to see the country finishing up at the beach, where there was a Fair. We went on the Switchback & various other side shows. On the way back Charlie pretended to be a dangerous lunatic, to frighten pedestrians & went through one act of the play "Sherlock Holmes". The C-in-C Pacific Fleet, Admiral Sweet & his wife came to dinner & afterwards we saw "A Dogs Life" & some of our own films. After the Admiral left

Sunday, October 22

In the Train - Los Angeles to Washington

[19th S. after Trinity.

The train left about 8.0 Ath, but we only woke up about noon.

Spent the day in the train, reading & writing, & missing Charlie very much.

We all went on to the Ambassador Hotel at Los Angeles where we saw 'Ganbarni Follies' & danced. Afterwards we drove, in a thick fog, to the Chaplin Studios, where our entire film "The Hit or Nice and Friendly" was run through without titles. Charlie then drove with us to Los Angeles Station & said Goodbye in the Boston about 3.0 Ath.

Monday, October 23

In the train has Angeles to Washington.

I was informed that I was expected to make a speech at the Navy league dinner in Washington, which at once depressed me. However, when I realized that it was time & that I couldn't get out of it & I set to & wrote out a speech.

We reached Albuquerque again to-day & bought some more Indian things.

I worked out from the "book of the rules" how to play the Chinese game of ~~Mah~~ Mah Chang.

Tuesday, October 24

In the train Los Angeles to Washington

We played Mah Chang to-day. We reached Kansas city in the evening. The Colonel has very kindly arranged that on this journey we do the stretches we did by night last time by day this time, so as to give us an opportunity of seeing the whole country. The railway official - Mr. CC Thompson, attached to us, has been most helpful.

Worked hard with Edwina at my speech.

Wednesday, October 25

In the train Los angeles to Washington.

We reached Chicago about 9.30 AM to-day. I got up about 9.20 as ~~Hendrick~~ the Colonel asked me to come & see the President of the Santa Fe' Railroad to thank them for their courtesy - which we did.

It was lucky I was up as the whole crowd of reporters & photographers were there again. In fact even more than last time. I escaped them but I had to go through with it. We had a shave & then went to the Pennsylvania station where we were hooked on to the famous " Broadway Limited " which left at 12.40. We were photographed again here:

Thursday, October 26

Washington.

We reached Washington at 10.0 AM & at once drove to 1759 R Street, the house which Colonel Thompson has taken, where we are living. After having a much needed bath we had lunch. In the afternoon we went for a drive with the Neilsons to see the city & do some shopping. Called on our Naval attachés, Captain Blake & ~~the~~ his relief Capt Tottenham. There was a big tea party here for people who knew our parents or wanted to meet us. We dined & were interviewed at Rauscher's Restaurant & went to Keiths to see Elsie Janis, who afterwards came on to 'de Paradis' & dined with us.

Friday, October 27

Washington.

I went to see our Ambassador (Sir Auckland Geddes) this morning. After that I joined up with the others & we went with a large Pic-nic party out to Mount Vernon, George Washington's home. We lunched in a field near there. I drove back with Mrs. Bliss. & we went to tea with Mrs. Townsend. Elsie Janis (& mother) were there & she sang to us.

We attended the Navy League dinner, this being Navy Day. I was very glad when my speech was over. Afterwards (12.0 o'clock) we went on to Le Paradis, as the guests of the Patriots & danced

Saturday, October 28

Washington & in the train to Florida.

Went to Riggs Bank in the morn to deposit Edwina's jewels. Mr. Sam Harris, President of the Canadian Navy League, is staying with us & he & Mr. Breckinridge lunched at 1754. After lunch Freddy E & J went shopping & at 3.15 pm caught the train for Long Key, Florida. Although we have not got the old 'Boston' on this trip, the Railway Company have ~~given~~ hooked on an extra Pullman (Springfield) which we have to ourselves, also for meals. The Pells have left us to go to New York.

Sunday, October 29

In the Train – Washington to Florida.

[20th S. after Trinity.

An uneventful & very hot day in the train. Owing to one of the brakes of our car jamming occasionally we were even more jolted in stopping & starting than usual.

Monday, October 30

Florida – at Sea in "Everglades"

We reached "Long Key" Railway Station several hours late about 11·0 P.M. & found the Colonel's "Houseboat" "Everglades" lying alongside a jetty in a concrete groove. We boarded her & she slipped & proceeded at 8 Knots down the Gulf of Mexico & passing a long bridge of the Railway we got out into the Atlantic. We 3 men went out in a motor boat & fished unsuccessfully for two hours Poor E felt sick as the 250 ton boat only draws 3 Ft 10" & rolls easily. We came in to Key West about 9·0 P.M. & called on the S.N.O – Captain Crossley.

Tuesday, October 31

Florida – on board Everglades.

We joined Capt'n Crossleys party in his launch the Zumbroda at 9.0 AM & left the ladies on board the Everglades, who steamed out to join us for lunch. We fished for 3 hours on the way out unsuccessfully but on reaching the lighthouse at American Shoal I got a 22 lb. baracuda. After lunch on board Everglades we did some successful bottom fishing for yellow tail, etc. in the Zumbroda. We then caught 4 more baracuda. Freddy Neilson caught 2 & I 2, one being about 25 lbs. It took us 4½ hours to reach the Everglades who had proceeded to Marathon.

Wednesday, November 1

Florida – on board "Everglades" –

We got under weigh early this morning & proceeded to Sombrero, where we anchored off the light-ship. We fished for ½ hour before lunch, Edwina & I each catching a barracuda. We fished for 4 hours after lunch. Edwina lost a really big barracuda as no gaff was ready. I lost a tremendous fish which carried away my line. Freddy Neilson landed a 40 lb. Amber Jack. Returned into Everglades to Monathan in time for dinner.

Thursday, November 2

Florida – on board Everglades.

We left Marathon & proceeded to Jew Fish Creek.

In the afternoon we fished in the creek the Colonel getting 13 fish & the rest of us in the larger motor boat, with Capt. Potter 12, of which I got 4 & Edwina 3. (Jack Fish)

In the evening the ship's captain speared 26 crawfish. We played Mah Jongg Frog. We were '2' up on the Nelsons both in the fishing & at 'Frog'.

Friday, November 3

Florida – on board Everglades.

Freddy & I went out in the large motor boat to Carysfort Light House to fish. We only really had luck on the return journey when we 5 fish each, including – mutton fish, groupa, rock hine, bill fish, mackerel & barracuda. It was quite choppy in the atlantic & we were pleased to return through the creek to the Everglades, who proceeded to Miami, and lay off Cocoanut grove about 8.0 pm.

Saturday, November 4

Florida, on board Everglades & Miami

Freddy & I turned out at 5.30 AM & left the ship at 6.00 AM in the large motor boat & after getting bait proceeded to the gulf Stream.

I caught a large barracuda (25 lbs) & then 2 Sailfish followed our bait, & struck at it. Then a mackerel shark took Freddy's bait. Freddy's rod burst & his reel came off & I had to play the shark by hand at times. Eventually we gaffed him & killed him. Freddy also hooked a Dolphin, which we lost. On return we passed the Everglades at Miami. We halted & after lunch saw the town & Mr. Deering's gorgeous bit of jungle with monkeys & birds & alligators & crocks, &c.

Sunday, November 5

Florida - onboard Everglades at Miami, Palm Beach

[21st S. after Trinity.

We spent the morning on board the Everglades at Miami, Admiral & Mrs. Ross coming to lunch.

At 1.45 pm we motored to Palm Beach, which we reached about 4.0 pm. We looked round & joined our train at 7.40 pm; the servants having come on with the luggage from Miami.

Monday, November 6

On the Train - Florida to Washington.

It was Eulalia Nelson's birthday to-day & we gave her a cigarette-holder.

Played Mah Chang & Blind fold golf. The Colonel is rather tired out.

Tuesday, November 7

Washington.

We reached Washington before breakfast & drove to 1759 R Street, the Colonel's house.

Had a good wash after breakfast & manicure, eh.

We lunched in, Mrs. Thompson being present & her companion, Miss Sykes.

Called on the Geddes's at the British Embassy at 3.0 pm & left cards on the wrong Mrs. Townsend by mistake. Went with Mrs. Slater to a wonderful concert given by the Philadelphia Orchestra. Dined in & went to a play called Mr. Antonio & then on with the Neilsons to Le Paradis

Wednesday, November 8

Washington.

In the morning Edwina, Freddy & I went for a ride on some of the Colonel's horses. After lunch we were photographed in the house. Went to Mrs. Townsend's for tea. Big party there & a lady sang.

Big dinner party given for us by the Thompsons here to-night. Mme Cobina (who with her husband Mr. Wright, has been staying here) sang after dinner.

Thursday, November 9

Washington

Stayed in all morning.
There was a luncheon party after which we dozed a little.
Went down during the Dog watches to the USS Mayflower the President's Yacht where they gave us a small party.
Dined with Mrs. Fraser & after dinner lots of people came in to meet us & we had a very hectic time talking to them all.

Friday, November 10

Washington

Edwina & I went to see that world famous occulist Dr. Wilmer to-day, twice. Later we went on accompanied by Freddy (in uniform with aiguilettes, looking very smart) Eulalia & the Colonel & called on President Warren G. Harding at the White House. I wore a top hat as I had been told by our Embassy not to wear uniform. I was surprised, therefore when told that I was to wear uniform for the dinner to-night at the Embassy. I had to change before going on to Mrs. Walsh's dance, back into plain clothes.

Saturday, November 11

Washington and Annapolis.

We went at 10.30 AM by a private car on the WB&A electric railway to the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. We were the guests of the superintendent, Admiral Wilson, & had lunch & dinner at his house. We saw the "Formation of the Regiment of Midshipmen" at 12-30 pm & watched the American Football match they played against St. Xavier. The organised cheering was amazing. After this we were shown over the college & went to the 1st Class's 'Hop' after dinner. We left by the private car at 10.0 PM.

Sunday, November 12

Washington.

[22nd S. after Trinity.

We motored out for lunch with Mrs. McLean at her house "Friendship". She was wearing the famous Hope diamond.

The Colonel, Freddy & I rode back, while Edwina & Eulalia motored on & left cards on people

Several people came in to tea & afterwards we played Mah Chang.

Went to a most amusing small & 'young' party given by General Bethell & the Cornelius Vanderbilts (Junior).

Tuesday, December 19

London.

The car was sent to fetch Maria from school. We were lunching at Lady Cunard's but as Edwina has a bad cold we lunched at Brook House with Maria & Cousin Anna, instead.

~~Marjorie~~ No less than 3 men came with furs to sell & by a mistake (since we had made an appointment with one of them, but did not know which) had to buy from all.

Marjorie, Brecky, Peter & Mary dined with us. (Bertie & George were originally coming but the former was away & the latter had an operation). We went again to the Cabaret Girl & Sons Grossmith.

Wednesday, December 20

London -

Lt. Cdr. D.N. Foel & his wife lunched with us. Tony Combe, who has just been axed (which is a great mistake) came & saw me at 10.30 & Joel at 12.0 before going to the Admiralty. He is making a great fight - to get me as his No 1. to 'Tyrant' still & I took him to see Admiral Halsey about it.

All my family (8) dined with us Mama - 1 brother, 2 sisters, 1 brother-in law, 1 sister-in-law & 2 nieces!

all except Mama went to see the Co-optimists later. The whole party got into our (generic & ours) 2 Rollses

Thursday, December 21

London.

Martin was driving Edwina along Knightsbridge, when a bus trying to pass them on the near side ran into them smashing the mudguard etc.

We lunched with the Joshuas. The 'Broadlands Estate' lawyer came to see Edwina about her will.

~~[illegible]~~ Joel has put off his departure to Paris to fight my battles, but without success, I fear.

Dined with Marjorie & Brechie, Rolly & Sonia Cubitt being there. Went to variety show at Alhambra, where Sonia dropped a pearl out of her ring. Afterwards went with Charlie & M&B to Midnight Follies at the Metropolis

Friday, December 22

London.

~~We lunch~~ Joel came to see me about Truant. The 'gods' at the Admiralty apparently will not let me go. as they think I need a turn of big ship before the signal course.

Lunched with Zia & Harold.

Afterwards took Andrea & Dolla round to White Star Line offices to book passage in olympic for USA.

We dined early & took the foels to the Xmas Fair & Circus at olympia.

Saturday, December 23

London, Broadlands & Bournemouth

Spent the morning in London, giving servants' Xmas Boxes, etc. Saw David & Fruity at York House.
Lunched with Mama.
Moored to Brankzone Dene via Broadlands, where we had tea.
A great family gathering here.
All the Cassells, Jenkins, Brechner (& Ashleys coming).

Sunday, December 24

Bournemouth

[4th S. in Advent.

Played tennis in forenoon.
Levitts came to lunch.
Daddy, Madre & Mary came.
There was a great xmas tree stunt at 5.0 pm & present giving.
Tried Movies afterwards.
Granmie has given me a ship's clock striking 'bells'.
Played Bridge after dinner.

Monday, December 25

Bournemouth

QUARTER DAY. [Christmas Day.

Xmas day. E + J + several of the others went to early church. Rained. Played poker both afternoon & evening. Gave Cinema show to House Party - wedding - Nice & Friendly American Topical & Lazy Street.

Tuesday, December 26

Bournemouth

Boxing day. Mary & I beat Edwina & Cousin Anna at tennis. We lunched early & went to the most appalling Pantomime. We could not sit through it & more than half of us left half-way through. It was called 'Mother Goose'.

gave a movie show for servants as well as house-party.

Wedding & The Cure.

Grannie's 'Lapsus Linguae' were priceless during dinner. Played Poker again We won over 100/- in the 2 days (2/- rise limit).

Wednesday, December 27

Bournemouth & London.

We heard a noise at 1.0 AM & got up & searched house with 1st Carrin Teddy & then Nurse finally thought it must be cistern gave wrong.

Motored to Fishpondo for lunch with Cricketons & took Nana up to London with us in the car.

Had tea with Nana.

Dinner alone. Norcgerman has arrived to act as our butler

Thursday, December 28

London.

Edwina & I shopped all morning. Louise, Margarita & Dolla lunched with us. Motored down to the airport of London (Croydon) where we saw planes come in from Cologne Holland & Paris. Freddy Nicholson flew over from Paris & after being shown over the RMA Private Hangar we motored him to Brook House.

Had tea with George & saw Harvey Crombie there also. Later Dined alone with Freddy & went to 'Snap' at the Vaudeville later going to the Midnight Follies where Mayo & Beatrice & Grossmith joined us.

Friday, December 29

London.

Took Freddy round to my tailor, breeches maker, shirt maker, hatter, bootmaker, etc, for him to get an outfit.

We had a huge family tea-party at which we showed our films.

Georgie Arada & Margarita dined & we went to see 'Bluebeard's 8th wife' - excellent. Afterwards we went to the Grafton Galleries, where Georgie & I were made honorary members & saw the midnight revels & danced.

Saturday, December 30

London.

Freddy + I watched the funeral being changed, in the morning. Georgie came to lunch + afterwards we went to the Xmas Fair at Olympia again to do the side shows.

Tea with George.

Alice, Andrea, Margarita, Dolla + Louise dined here + we went on to the Cabaret Girl + saw George grossmith.

I was inoculated against Typhoid + Para Typoid + felt mouldy.

Sunday, December 31

London.

[1st S. after Christmas.

Spent most of the morning in bed. Rosemary Corry lunched

We were going to dine with Aunt Helena but she got palpitation & so we had Mama, Alice, Andrea, Louise, Georgie, Nada, Margarita & Dolla to dinner, send Freddy out to dinner at the Grafton with Peter. Patsy, Alic, Cousin Thora & Louise came in after dinner & we had a movie show.

Then we all went on to the Grafton Gallery, including Alec (but not Mama) & had a mad night there.
