WHAT HAVE I LENT?

When Lent.	Article or Book.	To Whom.	When Returned.

Tuesday, January 1

Brankstone Wine. London. =

Wickie went off with the Jenkins' Breeky & Marjorie to hunt with the Blackmoreville & went straight up to London from Templecombe after hunting. I went up by the 2.30 from Bournemouth arriving at tea time. Wined alone as Wickie only arrived at 8.45 & we went straight to "London Calling" which is excellent. =

Wednesday, January 2

London.

Shopping & various interviews in the morning. Aunt Victoria and "The Kipper" (Bradford) to lunch & in the afternoon Dickie and I did more shopping. After tea I interviewed the architect & Dickie saw Miss Underhill. Dined early & Dickie and I went to the "Green Goddess" a marvellous play & very thrilling. = Dickie's leave up which is very sad & he had to go back to Plymouth by the midnight train to reform the "Revenge".

Thursday, January 3

London. Branksome.

I did some shopping, saw the W? & had my nails done in the morning. = More shopping after and came down to Bournemouth by the 4.30 train arriving at 7. Granny alone excepting for the Cassel children who are still here; & Louis in Helen arrived late after dinner. =

Friday, January 4

Bournemouth.

Glorious day & quite warm walked with Simon in the morning. = Lady Sassoon & Mrs Elliott for Bridge in the afternoon. = Dickie got over from Weymouth in the evening
as all the ships are collecting there for their departure on Spring Cruise on the 10th.
He was able to stay the night. =
All the Cassels left.

Saturday, January 5

Bournemouth.

Dickie had to be called at 5.50 as it takes him an hour to get over to Weymouth & he has to catch the 7.35 boat. I took Simon for a walk in the morning. Dickie got back about 2.30 & he did various things in the afternoon and after tea. = Early bed. =

Sunday, January 6

Bournemouth.

Epiphany.

Dickie left at the same early hour but quickly was able to get back for lunch. We walked in the afternoon & gave Simon violent exercise down the "Chines". Later Dickie typed & I worked. Bed 10 o'clock.

Monday, January 7

Bournemouth.

Walked with Simon in the morning. Shopped in Bournemouth with Nannie after lunch & Wickie got out from Weymouth about tea-time. Mr. Nutt from Barkers arrived down from London about 5 to see us re. the new car we're ordering. He returned at 6.30. Grannie dined upstairs so Wickie & I were alone. He felt ill so we retired to bed early having closed him heavily.

Tuesday, January 8

Bournemouth.

Dickie felt so rotten he did'nreturn to the ship & stayed in bed all day. Had temperature of over 100 &
the Dr. said it was "flu".
I stayed with him most of the day. =

Wednesday, January 9

Bournemouth:

Wickie much better & Dr. said that if his temperature was normal in the evening he could return to the ship late as they sail on the Mediterranean spring cruise at Cock-crow to-morrow. He was alright in the evening & felt much better so got up. I molded into Bournemouth with him. & saw him go off in the boat to the ship. Got back about 11.45. Very sad! thick snow during the day & icy cold.

Thursday, January 10

Bournemouth.

very depressed: Took Simon out for a walk. Miss Morrison Bell & another female to lunch, wrote lots of letters, did various business things in the afternoon. Lady Margaret Levett arrived.

Friday, January 11

Bournemouth.

Hilary Sittings begin.

Walked in the morning & also drove out in the car with Nannie who had various things to do. Grannie, Lady Margaret, Nannie & I went to the Cinema "Robin Hood" in the afternoon & I drove them there in the car. The last-time I shall go in her as Barkers are taking her in part payment (£1400, & possibly £1500) for the new car we've ordered. Martin is taking her up to morrow, & bringing down my little 20 h.p next week. =

Saturday, January 12

Bournemouth. =

Awful gale blowing still. Walked for a bit before lunch & Lady Margaret left directly after. = Granny Nurse & I went to a Concert at the Winter Gardens Mosenwalsch playing; & it was excellent. =

Sunday, January 13

Bournemouth.

1st S. after Epiphany.

Drove with Grannie for a short time in the morning & then she went to lunch at the Malmesbury. I did'nt so Nannie & I lunched i alone, after took the dog out. Early bed. =

Monday, January 14

Bournemouth.

Drove with Granie and did some shopping with her before lunch. Had wire from Wiellie saying they'd arrived safely at Vigo. = Walked with Simon & Nannie in the afternoon. =

Tuesday, January 15

By Sunnemouth. =

Went out shopping with Nannie in the morning & only got back just in time for lunch. = The Rev. Mr. Pennyman to tea. Patience with Nannie after dinner & early bed. =

Wednesday, January 16

Bournemouth =

Nasty day and did very little but fell extremely ill & very bad-tempered!! — Martin arrived down with the little cat. In the afternoon he went to "Enemies of Women". =

Thursday, January 17

Bournemouth

Drove into the town in the little car & did & some shopping in the morning. = After lunch I went for a short time to the Westbourne Emerie & Cousin Cuckoo came to tea. =

Friday, January 18

Bournemouth. =
