ASPREY'S

Concise Pocket Encyclopædia

CLOTH 3/- NET (Postage 3d.) LEATHER 7/6

5 × 3½ × 1 inches. 720 pages. Thin Paper, Clear Print.

A RECENT REVIEW:

"For home or office use there is no better or handier little all-round reference book than the Concise Pocket Encyclopædia, published by Messrs. Asprey & Co., Ltd. It manages to compress the maximum of useful information within the minimum of space, yet is clearly printed and interestingly written. It is well described, for it really is an 'encyclopædia,' it really is 'concise,' and it really is of a size convenient for the pocket. Printed on thin but opaque paper it is easy to read, and, nicely bound in cloth, is wonderful value for sale at 3s."

WHAT HAVE I LENT ?

When Lent	Article or Book	To Whom	When Returned

London

Thursday, January 1 ×

New Year's Day.

Spent a busy morning shopping and keeping appointments and looked in to see Mary.
Had Emerald, Colin Davidson Hugh & George to lunch.
Visited an Exhibition of Etchings by a Norwegian man called Haagensen. Then to tea at Mary's. Saw Marjorie there and her children too.
Hugh & I dined & we went to a very good play called "As others see us".

Friday, January 2

London Adsdean

Shopped in the morning & went round to Mary's and stayed for lunch at 1 o'clock which I had upstairs on a tray with her.
Peter and I motored down to Adsdean at 1 30. Had a short ride with Jackie and Patricia on arrival. Sheaffer
Morrison arrived before dinner.
Spent a quiet evening

Saturday, January 3

Cold dream

Spent a quiet day. Sheather and Dickie Rode and Hewitted the Polo Ball about. Teddy Lonsdale arrived for dinner and they talked a lot of Polo and worked on Dickie's book. I went to bed early: after Dickie had shown a film of the International Polo Game in America.

Sunday, January 4

Adsdean London. Holyhead

2nd Sunday after Christmas.

They rode in the morning. Wrote a lot of letters till lunch. At 3 motored up to London, had tea with Mary where I also saw Marjorie. Daddy dined & he and I left for Ireland on the 8.45 train getting to Holyhead about 2.

Monday, January 5

Holyhead. Kingstown. Dublin. Sligo. Bundoran

Good crossing & arrived over at Kingstown about 6. Then into the Dublin train & from there direct to Sligo which we reached at 11.45. Two friends of Daddy Mr. Jörgensen & Mr. Hargraves coming over to shoot with him. We all motored to Bundoran where we are staying at the hotel. Cold intense but bright sunny day. Daddy & I motored 20 minutes over to Glassiebawn his place nearby, which has not been lived in since 1916 the Rebellion & tho' lovely in situation is now empty practically & in a bad state internally.

Tuesday, January 6

Bundoran Glenhubawn. Sligo Dublin Kingstown

Epiphany.

Jaddy & his two friends went off shooting and I went up to the house where I interviewed decorators etc with a view to doing the house up cheaply. Harding & I then motored on into Sligo where we caught the 3.5 mail train to Dublin. Reached Kingstown at 8.30 & crossed to Holyhead getting there about midnight. Frightfully cold. Got into a sleeper for London.

Wednesday, January 7

London

Arrived at Euston very late owing to cold & fog etc. Breakfasted & had a bath. Then went round to see Mary and did a lot of shopping. Lunched with Mary, George, Mabelle & Albert, Clarence Vor Ignest. Perry dined and we went to see a private view of a new film "Africa Speaks" very good.

Thursday, January 8

London

More shopping. George & Bobby Casa Maury Kay & Perry lunched and spent a long afternoon shopping & seeing people. Also took Patriarca to the dentist & Hannah to the doctor. Dined at the Berkeley Grill with Bobby C.R. & sat and talked there.

Friday, January 9

London

Sat for Lawrence in the Mornings. Paula Peter & Marjorie & Brecky to Lunch & shopped after & had tea with Mary. Ian came in to see me. Dickie arrived up at 6 & we went to the Circus in the evening.

Saturday, January 10

London.

Dickie went down to Adsdean early to shoot. I remained in bed all day as I felt awful. Kinthsen came in to see me & refused to allow me to get up.
Read etc.

Sunday, January 11

London

1st Sunday after Epiphany.

Intended staying in bed all day but having spent the morning there suddenly heard Mary's baby was frightfully ill so dashed round. Found it nearly dead. Recovered slowly but spent very anxious time. Left about 6 Mabelle and Jeannie came in to see me and I went to sleep early.

Monday, January 12

London

Hilary Sittings begin.

Felt better and got up for Lunch. which Jeanie and Marjorie came too. Then I went to the Persian Exhibition with Ella Joshua. A man called Lee Asshelon took us round & it really is lovely. Later to see Mary and the baby who is better thank Goodness Mabelle & Aksel, Peter & Marjorie & Brecky dined & we went to hear Sophie Tucker at the Palladium. To see Mary & baby again after

Tuesday, January 13

London

Dadd round at 12-30 to see me. & we went down to Kensington to see a Lawrence picture he had heard of. He came back for lunch which Georgie & Nada came to also. A lot of shopping in the afternoon & to Mary.
Had my head washed.
Hugh got up late & we dined late & went to the Flea Cyril Maude has made it "Humpy".

Wednesday, January 14

London

Sat for Lawrence for the last time in the morning. Quite good. Then looked in to see Mary. then lunched with Hugh. Shopped & saw Lehmann in the afternoon Tea at Katie Cruchlow & as I wanted to see Professor about my trip abroad. Also to see Mary & Jeanie. Went with Hugh to the Victoria Palace show. Then to a party given by Helen Fitzgerald for Cole Porter & the Marx Brothers. Not very good.

Thursday, January 15

London

Fitting & shopping in the morning lunched with Hannah & then went to the doctor with her & did more shopping.
Ronnie, Lani & Mabelle came in to see me in the evening
I dined with Hugh & we went again to see "The Blue Angel".

Friday, January 16

London Adsdean

Most hectic morning beginning with Mike for breakfast & continual appointments till a hurried lunch with Mary at 1 o'clock. Motored down to Adsdean with Peter at 2 getting there soon after four & then Jode with Dickie = George & Nada & their friend the "wave" for dinner.

Saturday, January 17

Adsdean

Did a lot of things in the house & Jude in the morning Fifty day and got caught in a hail storm & 1 cy gale blowing. Peter & I went into Portsmouth to see Larry Gray in a very good film "Children of Pleasure" after lunch. In the evening went over to Hansted to the Bessborough for their Jewry Theatricals. Then to supper at the house. Theatricals very good.

Sunday, January 18

Adsdean Maidenhead London

2nd Sunday after Epiphany.

Rode in the morning and did a lot of business in the house Jickie and I motored up to Maidenhead to tea with George and Nada in the afternoon and he returned to Adsdean while I went on up to London High dined. We went to a film at the Empire "Very Kind" Jeanne came for dinner but went to bed early.

Monday, January 19

London

very lots of morning including a permanent hair wave. Late lunch with Hugh & Norma shopping after. Aunt Victoria to Lia & also went round to Mary Fittings later. Hugh & I dined in & went to a terrible film of Jack Buchanan's "Monte Carlo".

Tuesday, January 20

London

Hectic morning again. Fitted saw the doctors & Hannah. Lunched at home with Hugh. Cousin Anna & Marjorie came in after. Hugh & I went out and did a little shopping. He left for the country at tea time & I went round to see Mary. Later had my hair washed & nails done. Dickie & Peter arrived up for the night & Jeanie & Micky looked in. Dickie Peter Bobby Casa Mary & I dined & went to the Marx Brothers show & were joined by Jean, Kay & the Breckles at the Cafe Anglais.

Wednesday, January 21

London Plymouth S.S. "Samaria"

Marjorie & I left Paddington at 11 √
in route for the West Indies & Mexico and don't expect to return till April. Didie & the family to see me off. Arrived at Plymouth at 4. Pouring rain & had to go off in a tender. Ship very full & we know a few people like the Arthurs & Eleanor Sutherland. Quiet evening & early bed.

Thursday, January 22

R.M.S. "Samaria" At sea

Fairly calm & quite a lovely morning Got rather colder later. Sat out on deck and took some exercise in the Gym. Eileen having meals with us. She and Marjorie play a lot of Bézique and I read a good deal.

Friday, January 23

R.M.S. Samaria At Sea

Not so fine and rolling a bit tho' very slightly considering we are in the Bay. = Read out on deck in the afternoon and played Ping Pong with Marjorie.
A lecture with Lantern Slides on the Cruise in General and Madeira our first call later; after dinner, bed very early. =

R.M.S. "Samaria" Saturday, January 24 At sea.

A most lovely morning and really warm and sunny and so got up early & went and sat up on deck. Not so fine later in the day. Wrote a lot of letters in the evening prior to arriving at Madeira tomorrow from where we can mail them home.

Sunday, January 25

R.M.S. "Samaria" Madeira

3rd Sunday after Epiphany.

Sailing at Madeira

Arrived in early. Perfectly lovely day. Went ashore early & looked rather the Town Funchal including the church in which Columbus is reputed to have been married & which has rather a good Moorish ceiling. Then to Reid's Hotel to lie in the sun on the rocks in the sun. Quite hot. Lunched there & then took a drive round. Very pretty & most glorious flowers, banks of big nonias & red & purple bougainvillia, hibiscus, trees of camelias & every sort of flowers. Motored up 3,000 ft. above Funchal & then came down on sledges on a sort of toboggan slide. Went back on board for tea & then ashore again for dinner & gambled at the Casino after & won.

Monday, January 26

R.M.S. Samaria At sea

Wattle Day, Australia.

Not so fine & ship moving quite a lot. Did not get up till Just before lunch. Read in the afternoon out on deck. Marjorie slaped in bed till tea time. Horse racing on deck about 5. Eileen & Marjorie played Bézique after dinner and I read and went to bed very early.

Tuesday, January 27

R.M.S. "Samaria" at sea

A really lovely day. Hot sunny & glorious blue sky and sea. Sat on deck out in the open all day and bathed. Cleaned my hair washed and nails done. A Concert performance on deck after dinner

Wednesday, January 28

R.M.S. "Samaria" At sea

Not quite so fine though quite hot on the whole & delicious lying out on deck. An open air canvas swimming pool out on deck now which is delicious & quite big enough for a short swim.
A lecture on Trinidad and St Vincent after dinner.

Thursday, January 29

R.M.S. "Samaria" at sea

Wet early but fine later. First day "in the tropics" all officers crew & staff changed into whites. Bathed in the afternoon and the water was deliciously warm. Later went up to the Gym & took all sorts of exercise. Very damp heat.

Friday, January 30

R.M.S. "Samaria" At sea.

Bathed early. Really glorious day the whole time & delicious warm lots of flying fish about. The Captain took us all over the Bridge and his quarters in the morning. Lying in the afternoon & read a lot & lay out in the air.

Saturday, January 31 X

R.M.S "Samaria" at sea.

Heavenly day, 83 in the shade on the Bridge & the temperature of the sea 78. Bathed in the morning & lay out on deck most of the day. A fancy Dress dance & dinner in the evening Eileen Marjorie & I went in Pyjamas trousers shirts handkerchiefs round our heads & the hats we bought in Madeira turned up all round. The whole effect was rather Mexican & glorious night & walked right forward before going to bed. Very hot night.

Sunday, February 1

R.M.S. "Samaria" at sea

Septuagesima.

Lovely day. Spent a quiet time lying up on deck = delicious warm temperature 80 in the water & 85 on the Bridge Eileen & Marjorie bathed twice Another lecture on the various places we go to after dinner.

Monday, February 2

R.M.S. "Samaria" St. Vincent
Cecile Shearly

Arrived in Carf at St. Vincent a delicious little West Indian Island belonging to England. Went ashore in the launch about 9.30 & then motored to a very good little bathing beach opposite a small island called Young's. Took our lunch. Lovely drive all over the island in the afternoon. Got our legs terribly sunburnt. Very attractive place. Lovely flowers & flowering shrubs. Sailed again at 7 P.M.

Tuesday, February 3

R.M.S. "Samaria" Trinidad

Got in to Brighton Trinidad early & were met there by a man called Domobriga whom Max (who has interests in the Island) had asked to meet us. He motored us right across the Island through the famous Pitch Lake & then flowers jungles with flame of the Forest Immortalis Hibiscus & every sort of flowering shrub & Cocoa & sugar & banana plantations. Lunched with some people called Greer he is Colonial Secretary. Then shopped in the Capital Port of Spain & then drove out to Maquerripe Bay beautiful bathing. Back to the ship (which had come round at midday) to change & then dined ashore with the Domobriga & Greer party.

Sailed at 11.30 Glorious hot

Wednesday, February 4

R.M.S. "Samaria" At sea

At sea all day, 9 Conoris weather and bathed a lot & Cay & basked in the sun on deck. Played Poker with a Mrs Grindling & some people called Thornlein after dinner very hot so Marjorie and I slept up on deck. Disturbed night owing to the moon which dazzled us & meant moving our beds. Then rain & early morning washing of decks" Otherwise delicious 92 in the shade on the Bridge.

Thursday, February 5

R.M.S. "Samaria" At sea

At sea all day again en route for Cartagena (Colombia). Now cruising right along & very frequently within sight of the north coast of South America. Horse racing in the afternoon & I had one which won. Poker after dinner again. Eileen Mayoria & I all suffering severely from swollen feet & legs due to the heat and sunburn!! Impossible to get any shoes on!!

Friday, February 6

R.M.S. "Samaria" Cartagena. At sea

Arrived in early. Very fine approach right into Cartagena harbour. The place of great historical interest & some good exterior of churches & houses. All very Spanish & a fovel drive to overlook the entire town & country side & sea. Lunched at the hotel & drove round the old walls & went to the market. Sailed again at 4. Rather rough & very windy. Governing after dinner.

Saturday, February 7

Colon. Cristobal. Panama Canal. { Panama ancore

Arrived at about 12.30. Lunched on board & then motored to the Galion Locks of the Panama Canal where we had the pack to see a big American battleship. Went on by train to Gamboa, then by steamer through the Culebra Cut to San Pedro Miguel very interesting. Then motored out to old Panama ruins & back to Panama to the "Tivoli" where we are staying the night. Most of the rest of the ship returned by special train gate to Colon. We were taken to a party by a very nice American called Winslow at the Union Club. Delightful, open air dancing floor & glorious night. Very late bed. Also met the Panama Minister of Foreign Affairs Dr Vallarino, very delightful wan

Sunday, February 8

Panama. Colon. "S.S. Samaria"

Sexagesima.

Not having got to bed till 4 felt awful on being called at 8. Dr.
Vallerino called at 9.15 to take us driving round the town & then to bathe at the Union Club.
Delightful open air swimming pool. Quite delicious. Glorious hot day. Lunched with Dr. Vallerino & his wife Mr. Winslow & some Americans called Bucknell who had entertained us last night at an open air place called the Miramare. Flew back over the Canal in a Pan. American Ford machine with Margoni. Mr. Winslow
Eleven went by rail. Swam at the Washington Hotel open air pool. Had a cocktail & a bit of dinner. Nearly missed the boat at 8

Should be Wednesday Feb. 11.

Monday, February 9

Kingston Jamaica. at sea

Lovely morning. Drove into Kingston & swam in the Myrtle Bank Hotel open air pool. Then back to the ship to change for lunch with the Governor Sir Edward Stubbs. Shopping in the afternoon & eventually sailed at 5 for Haiti. Had a small dining party on board.

Tuesday, February 10

Jamaica Kingston

Arrived in at 9 A.M. & various people met us including the Governor's A.D.C. & a friend of the Mr. Winslow we met in Panama. The friend was suffering from a hang over from the night before & continued all day & incidentally passed out "eventually at dinner". In the morning we went to the Myrtle Bank hotel for a drink, then to some excellent open air swimming baths & met some delightful American Naval officers including one called Ingalls who is Ass. Secy of the Navy for Aeronautics. Lunched out at a new hotel called Constant Springs. Drove in the afternoon to some lovely gardens called Castleton & swam again at 7 — also again at midnight. Dined & stayed night at

(Should be Monday Feb. 9th)

"S.S. Samaria" (Wednesday, February 11) At sea

Very rough & wet & windy day & quite exhausted after our debauch & late night at Panama so spent a fairly quiet day. Horse races in the afternoon. Read a lot. Have bad swollen foot & am rather painfully sunburnt. One of the passengers a Colonel Lyle died suddenly of heart-failure in his cabin.

Haiti Thursday, February 12 Port of Prince

Got into Haiti about 12. Very attractive as you sail for miles close to land on either side with the mountains coming right down to the sea on each side. Very wild Country & fairly primitive. The capital Port of Prince only contains two big buildings one the Palace & the other the Gaol. The rest were less wooden houses with corrugated iron roofs. A private audience for us with the President had been arranged. It is an independent Negro Republic under the protection of the U.S.A & our interview with the Negro President Vincent escorted by his entire black Cabinet discussed in French was marvellous. I rode round the town & outskirts & sailed for Jamaica at 5.

Friday, February 13

Kingston Jamaica. Port-Antonio

Arrived in at Kingston about 12 & there all three finally left the ship & its cruise as we are staying on in Jamaica a bit. Our former friend of the "hang over" met us again Bob Thach & was perfectly charming. Lunched at the Myrtle Bank & then motored with him right through the Blue Mts along a terrific narrow twist road to Port-Antonio. Got caught in fog & a regular cloud burst in the mountains & had great difficulty in getting through. Finally reached Port-Antonio at 8.30. Its on the north east coast

Port Antonio — Saturday, February 14 — Shaw Park

Glorious morning early so Marjorie Bob Mack & I bathed Lovely swimming. Then motored to see the Blue Hole a kind of Capri effect. Bad weather later & spurts of tropical rain at frequent intervals. Rafted down the Rio Grande River in the afternoon. Quite lovely & beautiful scenery. Then motored along the coast 60 miles to Shaw Park Ocho Rios. Very attractive hotel which used to be a private house standing on a hill back from the sea, lovely gardens & comfortable rooms with big porches.

Sunday, February 15

Shaw Park.

Quinquagesima.

Spent the whole morning bathing and lying on the beach. Very warm air & water. Motored in the afternoon through lovely country & called on various landowners & had tea up at a place in the mountains called Moneague. Most lovely coast & tropical trees & flowers growing right down to the ocean edge. Beautiful colors. Back through the Fern Gully which is lovely.

Monday, February 16

Shaw Park.

Bathed again in the morning & motored in the afternoon. A dance at the hotel in the evening which was not much fun but delicious house & warm weather so we enjoyed it. A lot of naval people came out from Kingston as the "Nelson" is in on a cruise.

Tuesday, February 17

Shaw Park. Montego Bay

Shrove Tuesday.

Got up at cock crow. Most glorious day and very hot. Left at 7.30 & motored along the coast to Montego Bay. Delicious place & very little hotel. Doctors' Cave right on rocks over the sea which is crystal clear beautiful white shingle & azure blue. You can practically jump into it from your bedroom window. Lovely verandahs - spent the whole day swimming & lying on the beach & also went out to the coral reefs with glass boxes to examine the bottom of the sea. Heavenly spot & we want to stay

Wednesday, February 18

Montego Bay. Kingston

Ash Wednesday.

S.S. "Carillo"

Had to leave at the awful hour of 7 A.M. so as to catch our boat for Santiago & Cuba. Lunched on board the "Nelson" with Admiral Hodges before sailing & had a terrific rush. Our friend Bob Thach still with us & has been trailing all round Jamaica being quite marvellous coping with our maids luggage & eccentricities. He finally sailed with us in the Carillo a United Fruit Co. Boat Just to see us over safely to Santiago. —

Lovely trip thro' a little rough at dinner. Lots of Ants in the cabins & we're devoured!

Santiago Thursday, February 19 Train

Arrived in at Santiago at 6:30. Most beautiful entrance & harbour with old castle & fortifications. Were met by a mass of hotel managers, railway officials & Mr Bicardi of Rum fame who took us to his office & played us with cocktails at 8.30 A.M. Drove round the town which is very attractive. Then to the station where they gave us a private Pullman for nothing up to Havana. Stopped 2 hours at Camaguey & drove round very hot & tiring journey.

Friday, February 20

Havana

Got in early & were met by a charming man called Mason the Gen. Manager of Panamerican Railways. Drove to the Nacionale the enormous new hotel where we are staying. Geordie Sutherland with Eddie Ward Gray Philipps & my friend of last year Lawrence Gray all arrived by ship from California the same time. Lunched in the hotel & drove out to the country Club. Dined; a gala - & then Larry & I went to a night club. Very late bed.

Saturday, February 21

Havana

Lunched out at the County Club with the Italian Minister, very pretty out there. Marjorie Larry & I swam in the pool there after. Talked to Dickie on the telephone. Also Hugh. Havana very fine city well laid out & some good buildings. Dined at an open air place called "Sans Souci" with the Masons & later went on to the Casino. Late bed again & getting quite ga-ga!

Sunday, February 22

Havana Balābano

1st Sunday in Lent.

Left Earl with some Cubans called de Mesa for a fishing expedition to a place on the southern side of the island called Balābano where you are supposed to get Tarpon. We sailed all day but got nothing except a good sunburn & a sleep. Very pretty drive. Dined at the Casino with Mrs Harry Brown. An enormous dinner & not very exciting. Late night again!

Monday, February 23

Havana

Lovely day. Lunched out at the Yacht Club with a Colonel Johnston & bathed. Sea lovely. Motored into town & had people for cocktails. Mr. Ingalls flew up from Central America. Mary Sue flew over to Palm Beach for the night.

We all dined with the American Ambassador Mr. Guggenheim who gave a dinner & party for us. Very good & lovely garden. Late bed as usual. Hotel terribly noisy, & every door bangs & shutters rattle.

Tuesday, February 24

Havana

Glorious day, Swam in the morning & then lunched on the beach in our bathing & with Dave Ingalls came too. Drove to the old Spanish Fortress Morro Castle in the afternoon & went all over it. Lovely views & good old walls. Marjorie returned from Palm Beach & brought Kay Norton over also Bob Shack!
We gave a dinner for them all & the Masons & Dave Ingalls at the Sans Souci. Then to "Madrid" & the Casino. Hedic evening with Dave Ingalls & Larry!

Havana Wednesday, February 25 ×

Warm but not particularly fine went out to lunch with the Spanish Ambassador & his wife at the Country Club. Trouble with our Mexican visas in the afternoon & had to sign a million times & had photos done etc.
Dined at the hotel & went to see some Tia Alia. Same as "Pelota" then to a marvellous party given for us by the masons with Cuban music & dances. Very wild & we eventually went on to the native quarter of the town & did not get to bed till six. I slept out at the Country Club to try & get some quiet

Havana Thursday, February 26

Very windy day & rather dull. Went out into the country to see an enormous private collection of monkeys of all sizes and descriptions! Then all over the new Capitol a very fine building good proportions & lovely marble floors & good designs but appalling furniture & decoration. Back to lunch at the hotel. Kay flew back to Palm Beach. We did some shopping & I retired to bed for dinner. Quite exhausted. Larry stayed & dined & the others went off to the Casino again. Absolutely dead!

Friday, February 27

Havana

Lunched out at the Yacht Club with a Mrs Potter & her sister. Very hot. Shopping in the afternoon and returned quite exhausted. Our ship for Mexico which was due yesterday from Europe now supposed to arrive tomorrow night but everyone seems to be very vague.

Dined with the De Mesas at a very good little Italian Restaurant & then gambled at the Casino. Disastrous results to the extent of a good many hundreds. Late bed again & sandwiches in our rooms.

Saturday, February 28

Havana. "J. Rio Panuco"

Wrote letters in the morning & tried to do some packing. Marjorie Larry & I lunched at the hotel & then went down to finish some shopping. Had my hair washed after tea & we had some early dinner & at 9 went on board our ship which has just arrived in; 2 days late. = Geordie & Eileen Gray Philipps, Larry, Marjorie & I ale sailing for Mexico via Vera Cruz. = Quite a good ship German & very clean tho' not big 6,000 tons. Sailed about midnight. Hot night and very damp.

Ted Philipps a nephew of Gray's and Jack Evelyn a cousin of his also with us.

Sunday, March 1

D. "Rio Panuco" At Sea

2nd Sunday in Lent.

At Sea and lovely and warm slept up on deck a good deal & spent a quiet day recovering from our debauch at Havana as we were all completely exhausted. Eileen never appeared till dinner, most glorious evening & lovely full moon. Hot night.

Monday, March 2

D. "Rio Panuco"

Woke up to the most awful gale and enormous seas. Very rough indeed & although I survived we more of us felt too well and we battered about appallingly. Rolled & pitched & it could'nt have been more unpleasant and I fear we shall get in to Vera Cruz very late.

Tuesday, March 3

D" Rio Panuco"

breakfast better though still rough till lunch. Lovely in the afternoon and lay out on the sun deck. Played the Gramophone. A boy called Ted Phillipps, a friend of his also in the ship. He is nice but the friend pretty awful. Started here got in this morning but now hear that the ship will be 24 hours late due to the storm. Too maddening as he shall miss the morning train up to Mexico City from Vera Cruz.

Wednesday, March 4

D "Rio Panuco" Vera Cruz. Orizaba

Got in to Vera Cruz early but not soon enough to catch our train up. Decided to put the private saloon we have taken on to a slower train and go as far as Orizaba & stay the night in the car. Left at 12. First part dull but then got into the most lovely country fields of rice & gardenias & every kind of flowers & huge mountains & ravines & started climbing the 8,000 ft to Mexico. Stopped at lots of small stations. Dined at the hotel at Orizaba & slept in the car.

Orizaba Thursday, March 5 Mexico City went all round the town which is too attractive right at the foot of the mountain Orizaba & about 4,000 ft up. Lovely old church & market. On to Mexico at 10.30. Wonderful journey right up through the mountains & marvellous scenery. An amazing feat of engineering. The last part of the journey through the plateau & eventually arrived in at 7.30. The Minister & the 1st Secretary to meet us. No accomodation having been available we have taken a house, belonging to a Mexican family called Del Rio. Most attractive & lovely things in it. Early bed.

Friday, March 6

Mexico City
Glorious weather 7,500 ft. up & mountains all round. Spent the morning drawing around the town and doing some shopping & business. Back to lunch at the house & Ted Phillips and his friend also came. Most beautiful weather & we thought Mexico frightfully attractive. To the Cathedral (which is good in parts) in the afternoon and to the Ministry of Education which has wonderful frescoes by the famous Spanish artist Rivera. To tea at an attractive old house now turned into a restaurant. Various people in the tea room. Dinner at the Forbes. (1st secretary to the Legation & the British Minister. Party after.

Saturday, March 7

Mexico City Teotihuacan Pyramids
Visited Acolman Monastery & Guadalupe.
Glorious weather. Spent the day out at the Pyramids with the Forbes and party. They are very impressive Toltec period pre Azteca. Built as Sacrificial mounds instead of tombs like the Egyptian ones. Beautiful stone carvings on one of two heads of the Plumed serpent etc. Lunched out there in the caves very tiring day but most interesting. Also Tenayuca Pyramid Dined with the de Lauda brothers who had a party after & then took us round the town! Bed at 4"

Sunday, March 8

Mexico City. Los Remedios

3rd Sunday in Lent.

Had to get up at 8 & nearly died! Motored out to the Reform Club & then a boy called Tony Mackerson had got us some ponies & a lot of us rode out across country very wild & quite lovely to an old church & village called Los Remedios. Then on to the old Spanish aqueduct & water towers glorious ride. Back in time to go to a Bull fight which I hated as usual! Lots of people in for cocktails & dined at home late

Mexico City Monday, March 9 Tepozoltan

Motored into town early to do some shopping & visited the Flower Market - Government Pawnshop etc. Then on with the Forbes party about 2 hours away to a place called Tepozoltan with a beautiful old Jesuit monastery - church about 1584. Quite marvellous with beautiful gold leaf work & exquisite things & right in the middle of the plains away from everything. Lunched out on a terrace of the monastery, & had the most wonderful views. Bad road & were beautifully shaken up. Dinner at home Completely exhausted.

Tuesday, March 10

Mexico City La Gavia

Drove out into the country in the morning to the property of some people who own a large "hacienda" and about 400000 acres of land. Enormous party & most of them in lovely Mexican riding clothes as they did bull lassooing & throwing young bulls & rode all over the place. The most marvellous lunch out in the forest, like the middle ages, with meat being roasted over fires out in the open, & too picturesque for words. Dined in & went to Pelota. It excitement over a report in the papers that Diethe & I are getting a divorce!!

Wednesday, March 11

Mexico City Xochimilco

Visited the museum in the morning where they have some lovely Aztec & Toltec stone carvings & figures some of recently excavated & good examples of pottery etc. Then on to Xochimilco the floating gardens about an hour away where we functed & went on the water in canoes. On the way home to see the Country Club which is most attractive & to a lovely old church and disused monastery. To see the President's wife at Chapultepec at tea time. Beautiful site. Dinner given for us by a man called Thurbide and very good party.

Thursday, March 12

Mexico City Puebla

Lovely day, Wolfe with the most awful cold I have ever had. absolutely streaming & felt quite terrible all day. Drove right over and through the mountains another 3000 ft. (about 11,000 in all) to Puebla. Chilula Both packed with churches some very good. Lovely gold doors in front of all the chapels in the Cathedral. Very lavish inside. Beautiful drive. To bed for dinner as I could not face anyone any longer.

Friday, March 13

Mexico City. Cuernavaca Taxco.

Started off early for Cuernavaca most beautiful drive & you go up about 11000 ft & then drop to sea level in an incredibly short time. Right over the mountains & down to Cuernavaca most lovely old churches there with lovely exterior but not so good inside & beautiful flowers masses of jacarandas & bourgainvillia Then on up to Taxco a little Indian village way up in the mountains which has only had a road or any communication the last 2 years. Quite wild & the road terrible but marvellous scenery & 2 beautiful churches Fiesta going on & wonderfully picturesque. Played with the forbes at a house a mexican had lent them.

& all campanili, as it has lies worms.

Taxco

Saturday, March 14

Mexico City

Explored the place again & is perfectly fascinating. Lunched early & then started back Marjorie Larry & I = Eileen, Geordie & Gray having gone earlier.
Beautiful drive though very hot at times & then again cold up in the mountains. Got to Cuernavaca at tea time so stopped for a bit & got in to Mexico about 6.30.
Various people to dine & went to the British Club dance for the officers of the "Dauntless" which had come in to Vera Cruz. Quite awful & did not stay long

Mexico City

Sunday, March 15

4th Sunday in Lent.

Some of them rode but I was not feeling too well so I took things quietly. drove with Gray, Larry & Ted Phillipps friends Mr. Evelyn to see a lovely little church with tiled roofs called San Angel. Lunched at the inn there & then drove out to a place called Desierto de Leones an old ruined monastery up in the mountains. Frantic evening making arrangements for our departure. Called on our landlady Mme. del Rio-Garf to bed as I still had my cold on me.

Mexico City — Monday, March 16 — Train

Busy morning as I suddenly heard they could give me a private car up to Nogales the U.S.A. frontier as I am going to California & must leave tonight. A large lunch party given for us & visited some places & did some shopping & paid bills in the afternoon. Eileen Hendrie Marjorie & Gray leaving on Wednesday for Florida. Ted Philipps & Evelyn Larry & I left on the 6.30 train for California via Guadalajara in a very smart special car.

Tuesday, March 17

Guadalajara. Train

St. Patrick's Day.

Arrived in at Guadalajara at 9 o'clock & were met by a Mexican friend who drove us all round & the place looks most attractive & most beautiful flowers everywhere. Then into the train again in route for Nogales the frontier most beautiful country wild mountains & gorgeous scenery & climbing fantastically & incredible views.

Wednesday, March 18

Mazatlan. Train

arrived in at Mazatlan on the Pacific coast at 7 A.M. & being determined to see it drove frantically round the place for ½ hour despite a thick fog which soaked us & made it completely impossible to see anything!! Back to the train again & on with our journey. Into the low country now but mountains still in view & lovely flowers & green parrakeets & tropical vegetation every where. Stopped at various places. Dust appalling & very hot in the afternoon.

Thursday, March 19

Nogales Arizona Train

Arrived in Nogales the frontier town between Mexico & the U.S.A. on the Arizona border at 12. Changed trains & had 4 hours there so went & had delicious bath much needed at Excellent-little hotel & good lunch & walked [illegible] the place. Into our other train at 4 & onwards. Most glorious sunset. Left our special car but have a nice drawing room on this train.

Friday, March 20

Los Angeles. Santa Monica

Arrived in at Los Angeles at 8 A.M. & was met by Harry Crocker a great friend of Marion Davies' with whom I am going to play & various press people & photographers. Then drove out to Marion's "beach house" at Santa Monica. Quite lovely right on the ocean. Morning spent in cleaning up etc. Drove down to the studio for lunch as Marion is working on a picture at M.G.M. & in the afternoon saw some scenes taken & others working. Then some shopping & Honor's day and very hot. Had Norma Shearer's new film "Strangers May Kiss" at the house.

Saturday, March 21

Santa Monica

Glorious hot-day again. Rode at 9.30 with Ted Philipps at Bel Air up in the hills & swam in the ocean & Marion's lovely open air swimming pool when we returned. Lunch at the house Marion away working. Drove to Hollywood to do some things in the afternoon. Marion had an enormous dinner & dance after. Rather fun. = The whole film colony produces etc

Santa Monica

Sunday, March 22

Lovely weather again. Dined with P. G. Wodehouse & his wife who had an enormous party. Spent most of the evening telephoning to Mayone at Palm Beach.

Thursday, March 26

Santa Monica. Santa Barbara

Motored up to Santa Barbara with Larry in time for lunch most lovely road & very pretty place. A man called Charlie Daberney lunched with us & after we went all round the new City Hall 'Court-House' done by Mooser in Spanish style very effective. To tea with the Daberneys at Hope Ranch Estate Houses just outside at Montecito very attractive. Back for dinner & Marion had a lot of people in & a film after. Her own called 'Its a wise child'.

Friday, March 27

Santa Monica

very long ride in the morning all over the hills & only got back just in time for lunch to which a lot of people came & we had in riding clothes. Lovely day. Later motored into town & did some shopping & picked Mary Fairbanks up at her Bungalow & we went over to the Paramount Studios & saw various films being made including "The American Tragedy." Then Mary came home with me. A few people for dinner & early bed & a bad film.

Saturday, March 28

Santa Monica

Rode in the morning at Griffith Park. Not good horses & were shaken to pieces. Lunched at the Brown Derby & after did some shopping. Then over to the United Artists Studio where we were shown Charlie Chaplins new silent film "City Lights". Quite marvellous. Dined with Mary Fairbanks who gave a large dinner for me followed by a dance. Then on to another party given by Tommy Wannamaker at the Sevilla Biltmore. Very late bed.

Sunday, March 29

Santa Monica

Sunday next before Easter.

Slept late. A lot of people came up to the house & to swim and play tennis after Glorious weather & hot sun. Had a Buffet dinner & a very good film after called "The Royal family" with Ina Claire & Frederick March. Lots of film people came, also Chanel who is out here staying with the Sam Goldwyns,

Monday, March 30

Santa Monica

Rode in the morning, up at Bel Air again. Then lunched in town with Larry very late having driven in with Ted at 90 miles an hour & been arrested on the way.

Antibes

Thursday, August 6

Trilling hot in the train.
Arrived at Antibes at 12 & were met by Mary whose villa "Tandon" on the Cap d'Antibes we are going to stay at. Quite lovely position. Lady Mandeville also staying & lots of children.
Drove into Cannes in the afternoon to do some shopping & then joined Bobby & went out in their little motor Jacht to the Islands where we bathed. Laddie who is staying at Cannes joined us & we all returned to the Villa for dinner
& finally went to Thau les Pins
Casino and Maxims.

Antibes

Friday, August 7

very hot still Mary had an enormous lunch party down on the rocks & we ate & slept & swam & bathed. Enormous seas got up & I & another girl were nearly drowned & Victory du Cane badly cut on the rocks. However Bobby & Laurie saved me but thought I was gone.
Dined in Cannes at a place called Madrid with an Italian called Andria & later went to a party at the Proctors. All got rather tight except me.

13th Sunday after Trinity.

Marjorie & Kay came over for lunch & various others. Bobby & Mary Bobby Sweeney & I left in the "Lizard" at 5 for San Troppez shopping for being at a small place called Aguey on the way a lovely little bay. Seas fairly calm. Got to San Troppez about 7.30. & dined ashore & went to some extraordinary night places. Slept on board. Intend leaving for Porquerolles a lovely island further west near Toulon tomorrow.

Monday, August 31

San Tropez Port Cros

Left about 12 for Porquerolles & soon after leaving got into the most awful seas & gale & really at one moment when we were half way between the mainland & the islands thought we should never make it. Terrific waves & shipping a lot of water. Eventually just managed to put in to Port Cros the first island, quite lovely, very picturesque & we never so glad to see land. Lunched about 4 at the little hotel & dined ashore too & explored it all. Slept on board.

Tuesday, September 1

Port Cros Porquerolles

Partridge Shooting begins.

Most lovely little island & went for a terrific walk right across the island & bathed in a small bay the other side. Quite exhausted on our return lunched late & then started off in the Lizard for Porquerolles the next island. Weather slightly better & did not have such a bad trip though seas still pretty big. Dined at a little restaurant ashore & went on board to bed early.

Wednesday, September 2

Porquerolles Antibes

Glorious day. Took lunch & anchored in a bay off St Tropez where we bathed & slept & ate & got terrifically sunburnt. Very pretty & then landed & did a little shopping. Got back to Antibes about 7.
