

10th ANNUAL MEETING

Reflections and predictions across the disciplines

Thursday, September 20th

Avenue Campus ALL WELCOME

registration is free, email db5@soton.ac.uk

Confirmed speakers:

Hugh Perry (Biological Sciences, Southampton)

The Challenge of Neurodegenerative Disease: How can we contribute?

Jenny Morton (University of Cambridge)

Large Animals Models of Neurodegenerative Disease: Sheep Raise the Baa

Clive Gamble (Archaeology, Southampton)

Why humans have such big brains: The archaeological evidence

David Simpson (ISVR, Southampton)

Neuroengineering: from engineering to biology, and back

Wolfram Schultz (University of Cambridge)

Reward and risk processing

Graeme Fairchild (Psychology, Southampton)

The neuroscience of reward processing in adolescence: Sex differences and relationships with psychopathology

David Baldwin (Medicine, Southampton)

Excessive worrying and its treatment: Don't worry - be happy

Plus POSTER SESSION