

BR161

- BR161/1-19 Bundle of 19 documents, concerning Grove Place, Nursling. 1849-95
Grove Place was part of the Southwells Manor; there are a number of documents in BR156 concerning Southwells, including some which are recited in the indentures in this collection
- 1 Mortgage for £4,380 between (1) Thomas Burdon of London and Alexander Frederick Patterson of Southampton, mortgagees, (2) Henry Middleton, late of Grove Place, Nursling, Hampshire, now of Madeira, and (3) Isaac Potheary and William Symes of Bishop's Waltham, Hampshire, mortgagors, of Grove Place, Nursling, Hampshire, (at that time in use as a lunatic asylum), a leasehold property let by Henry John Temple, third Viscount Palmerston, to Harriette Middleton, subsequently deceased, who devised the leasehold premises to her friends, Thomas Burdon and Alexander Patterson, to be sold, with the proviso that her son, Henry Middleton should be given the opportunity to buy them, which he declined. The premises have been sold to Isaac Potheary and William Symes for £5,000, and the mortgage sum has been raised on the security of the premises themselves, and an interest Isaac Potheary has in the estate of his late father. On the reverse of the final leaf, and bearing the same date as an addendum on BR161/2, is an indenture of reassignment of the mortgaged leasehold property to Isaac Potheary from Thomas Burdon and Alexander Patterson, and confirmation that he holds it in his sole name 2 Jul 1849
addendum:
24 Dec 1853
- 2 Lease for twenty one years between (1) the Dean and Canons of the King's free chapel of St George at Windsor, and (2) Henry John Temple, third Viscount Palmerston, of Southwells manor 2 Jul 1851
- 3 Lease for twenty one years between (1) Henry John Temple, third Viscount Palmerston, and (2) Thomas Burdon of London and Alexander Frederick Patterson of Southampton, of Grove Place, Nursling, Hampshire, a leasehold property let to Lord Palmerston by the Dean and Canons of Windsor, with an indenture on the reverse of the final leaf, between (1) Thomas Burdon and Alexander Patterson, (2) William Symes, and (3) Isaac Potheary, assigning the leasehold to Isaac Potheary 22 Sep 1851
addendum:
24 Dec 1853
- 4 Mortgage for £720 between (1) Isaac Potheary and William Symes, both of Grove Place, Nursling, Hampshire, mortgagors, and (2) Alexander Frederick Patterson and James Bradby, both of Southampton, mortgagees, of Grove Place, Nursling, Hampshire, with a memorandum that the sum actually loaned was reduced to £740, and an indenture of release, on repayment of the principal together with interest, on the reverse of the final leaf 22 Mar 1853
release:
24 Dec 1853
- 5 Mortgage for £250 between (1) Isaac Potheary and William Symes, both of Grove Place, Nursling, Hampshire, mortgagors, and (2) Charles Bridger and Frederick Barnes, both of Winchester, of Grove Place, Nursling, Hampshire, with a release on the reverse of the final leaf, on repayment of the principal sum and interest 25 Aug 1853
release:
4 Jan 1854
- 6 Declaration by James Chaldecott Sharp of Southampton, of the firm of solicitors Sharp, Harrison and Sharp acting on behalf of Henry John Temple, third Viscount Palmerston, that this firm had prepared the indenture of lease of Grove Place, Nursling, by Lord Palmerston to Thomas Burdon and Alexander Frederick Patterson (BR161/2), and that it was James Sharp's belief that Lord 21 Dec 1853

Palmerston had full power and authority to do this
