

University of Southampton

1. The promoter of this competition is University of Southampton, a company incorporated in England & Wales by Royal Charter (registered number RC000668) whose registered address is at Highfield, Southampton, SO17 1BJ (the University).
2. The University of Southampton's Communications and Marketing department is inviting students to take part in a competition on the theme of the University bear, Hartley. The competition is free to enter.
3. The competition is open to all students who are both enrolled at the University of Southampton.
4. The winner will be asked to present a valid University ID on collection of their prize. Failure to present a valid ID will result in the respective prize being forfeited. In this instance, an alternative winner will be selected.
5. Anyone connected in any way with the creation/implementation of the competition is not permitted to enter.
6. There is no entry fee and no purchase necessary to enter this competition.
7. Entrants must submit an answer to the question or supply a caption or joke related to Hartley the bear via the social media channels the question/request is published on.
8. The competitions run through the academic year and holiday periods. The opening and closing dates for the competition will be clearly stated in the comms on the social media channels the competition is published on. The competition will open from the time of publication opening date and close at midnight on the closing date stated in the post. Entries received after the closing date/time or with incomplete forms/entries will not be eligible for entry to the competition. The University accepts no responsibility for any entries that are incomplete or ineligible to be submitted by the relevant closing date for any reason. Entries via agents or third parties are invalid.
9. The University reserves the right not to select a winner/s. Entries to 'Where's Hartley' will be selected using a random number generator.
10. The winner of the competition will receive an item from the Unigifts range. Prizes are non-transferrable and no cash alternative will be offered.
11. The University's decision is final. No correspondence will be entered into.
12. Any entries deemed inappropriate by members of the judging panel (including but not limited to, the inclusion of profanity) will be deemed invalid.
13. The winner will be contacted privately via email within 48 hours of the close of the competition.
The winner must claim their prize within 30 days of notification. If the prize are unclaimed after this time, they will lapse and the University reserves the right to offer any unclaimed prize to a substitute winner selected in accordance with these rules.
14. For the purposes of the Data Protection Act 2018 the data controller is the University of Southampton and any inquiries may be addressed to: unigifts@soton.ac.uk. The University will not disclose your data to any third parties except with your consent or as required by law. Please see our Privacy Notice at <https://www.southampton.ac.uk/about/governance/policies/privacy-policy.page> By entering this competition each entrant confirms that their submissions are their wholly owned creations and that, to the extent that such entries make use of any third party materials, these have been fully cleared unless they are no longer protected by copyright or other intellectual property rights.
15. To obtain details of the winner, please email unigifts@soton.ac.uk stating the name of the competition in the subject heading within 4 weeks of the closing date.
16. The University reserves the right to hold void, suspend, cancel, or amend the prize competition where it becomes necessary to do so.
17. These terms and conditions are governed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.
18. By entering the competition, each entrant agrees to be bound by these terms and conditions.