

Southern Central Council for AHP Research (CAHPR) Network - Wednesday 8th November 2017

Time 15.30 -6.00

Room 1007 Building 67, University of Southampton

Musculoskeletal Research Connect & Collaborate: Evidence update

AGENDA

3.30	FortisNet welcome and introduction	Professor Jo Adams/Dr Peter Worsley
3.35	Update on novel imaging measurement techniques to identify bio-mechanisms in people with spinal disorders	Alan Breen Professor of Musculoskeletal Research, University of Bournemouth
3.50	Body manipulations and the brain: searching for central mechanisms in persistent pain	Dr Jenny Lewis Senior Clinical Research Occupational Therapist Royal National Hospital for Rheumatic Diseases. Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Health & life Sciences, University of West England
4.05	Enhanced recovery pathways for patients undergoing hip and knee replacements	Dr Tom Wainwright. Associate Professor of Orthopaedics and Deputy Head of Orthopaedic Research Institute, Bournemouth University
4.20	Next generation prosthetic limbs: developments in rehabilitation engineering	Dr Alex Dickinson Lecturer and Royal Academy of Engineering Research Fellow, Faculty of Engineering and the Environment, University of Southampton
4.35	Interactive session with tea/coffee/cake/biscuits
5.00	Patient and provider experiences using e-health tools for self-management in long term conditions	Catherine Backman Professor, Dept of Occupational Science & Occupational Therapy. The University of British Columbia

		Arthritis Research Canada
5.20	Implementation of MSK randomised control trial evidence into NHS practice – SARAH implementation	Dr Esther Williamson Research Fellow Nuffield Department of Orthopaedics, Rheumatology and Musculoskeletal Sciences, University of Oxford
5.35	Use of ehealth and social media in MSK health	Dr Osman Ahmed Lecturer in Physiotherapy, Bournemouth University
5.50	Open Discussion : opportunities connecting and collaborating in MSK research	