

UNIVERSITY OF Southampton

Institute of Maritime Law

46th Maritime Law Short Course

26 August – 6 September 2019

NEW for 2019 online introduction module
Multiple booking discounts

The Maritime Law Short Course at Southampton has been providing innovative maritime law training to delegates from around the world for the last 45 years. As the only comprehensive residential course available on maritime law in the UK, the course combines a top quality learning environment with world leading expertise.

Speakers

Speakers will be from the Institute of Maritime Law and a number of specialist speakers from the City of London and beyond.

Course Outline

The course will begin with 5 days devoted to dry shipping, centering on charterparties, bills of lading and documentary credits, followed by 2 days on marine insurance, and the final 3 days will group wet shipping (particularly Admiralty issues), private international law aspects of shipping and dispute resolution. The full programme will be posted on our website.

Fee

Residential Course fee 2 weeks:

£5795 (VAT Exempt)

‘Early bird’ fee:

£4995 (for bookings made by 3 June 2019)

10% Multiple booking discount for companies sending 3 or more delegates, discount will apply to each booking.

*For cancellations received by 3 June 2019 a refund of monies paid, less £400 administration fee, will be issued. The full course fees will be payable in respect of cancellations thereafter.

For any questions or to book a place, contact Miss Clare Brady:

c.l.brady@southampton.ac.uk

For more details on the venue and what is included in the fee please visit the course page on our website:

www.southampton.ac.uk/iml/training/professional-cpd/46-short-course.page

/company/institute-of-maritime-law-at-the-university-of-southampton

@ImlSouthampton

