

Music Department Student Series

Monday 15 – Friday 26 January

Student Series – Ensemble examinations

Free admission

The University of Southampton's Music Department examination season showcases students' first performances of the year as part of their degrees.

These recitals form part of the University's lunchtime concert series and concert schedules at local city venues throughout the University exam period: classical lunchtime concerts take place in Turner Sims on Highfield Campus and St. Michael's Church, Bugle Street in the city centre, with evening gigs by our jazz and pop students on Tuesday 23 January at The Talking Heads, 16-22 The Polygon. Further details on specific concerts can be found below.

For more information on the programme for the Student Series and other concerts by the University of Southampton, please visit the Music Department events pages on <http://www.southampton.ac.uk/music/news/events/latest.page>.

For further information, please contact:

Louise Johnson

023 8059 8424

L.L.Johnson@soton.ac.uk.

Monday 15 January

Turner Sims

1pm

Mirificus (early music ensemble)

Tuesday 16 January

Turner Sims

1pm

Bel Cantando (vocal octet)

Friday 19 January

Turner Sims

1pm

Musical Theatre ensembles

Tuesday 23 January

St. Michael's Church, Bugle Street

1pm

Vocal ensembles

Tuesday 23 January

The Talking Heads, 16-22 The Polygon

An evening of pop, jazz, rock and funk with bands performing 25min sets each.

6pm – Georgia and Ben

7pm – Rhino Monoxide

8pm – Elegy

9pm – Myriad

10pm – Lost or Stolen

Friday 26 January

Turner Sims

1pm

Woodwind and string ensembles:

- Woodnote Trio (clarinet-violin-piano trio)
- Dúo Anónimo (guitar and flute duet)
- Quartet Cavazzi (string quartet)

(please note: this concert will last 1hr 30mins approx.)