

Contents

Abbreviations	vii
Preface	ix
1	Wellington's friend? Lord Londonderry and the Duke of Wellington A.Heesom, University of Durham	1
2	The Duke of Wellington and the Ultra peers Professor R.W.Davis, Washington University in St Louis	35
3	A long and difficult association: the Ultra Tories and 'the Great Apostate' Dr D.G.S.Simes, University of Waikato	56
4	The uses of celebrity: the attempted exploitation of the Duke of Wellington, 1819-32 S.Durham, University of Southampton	88
5	Military men fall out: Wellington, Cockburn and the last Lord High Admiral, 1827-8 Dr R.Morriss, Leckhampton	117
6	The soldier and the classicist: Wellington, Aberdeen and the Eastern Question, 1828-30 Professor M.Chamberlain, University of Wales Swansea	136
7	The foreign policy of Wellington's government, 1828-30 Professor P.Jupp, Queen's University, Belfast	152
			vi
			8
			Wellington and Political Unions: rumours, misinformation and the Great Reform Act of 1832 Dr N.LoPatin, University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point	184
			9
			Wellington and the government of Ireland, 1832-46 Dr P.Gray, University of Southampton	203
			10
			Wellington and the Corn Laws 1845-6: a study in heresthetic Professor I.McLean, University of Oxford	227
			11
			Immortal Wellington: literary tributes to the hero Professor N.Thompson, University of Western Ontario	257
			Index	281