

CMRC presents a research day on:

Houses and Households

Programme:

- 10.00 Welcome and Introduction
- 10.10 Matthew Johnson (Archaeology): 'Medieval domestic spaces: from 'domestic planning' to 'lived experience''
- 10.40 Chris Woolgar (History): 'Custom and the great household in late medieval England'
- 11.10 Discussion
- 11.25 Coffee
- 11.45 David Hinton (Archaeology): 'Things in peasant houses'
- 12.15 Michael Gale (Music): 'Household musicians and the performance of court(ier)ship in early modern England'
- 12.45 Discussion
- 1.00 Lunch (find your own)
- 2.30 Ros King (English): 'Arden of Faversham – a domestic tragedy c. 1590'
- 3.00 Maria Hayward (History): 'Traitors' homes: what household inventories can reveal about six men who supported Lady Jane Grey'
- 3.30 Discussion
- 3.45 Coffee
- 4.05 Louise Revell (Archaeology): 'Interpreting Roman provincial houses'
- 4.35 Graeme Earl (Archaeology): 'Computational simulation of medieval environments'
- 5.05 Discussion and summing up (led by Anne Curry)
- 5.30 Drinks and book launch

Monday 25 January 2010, from 10am

Lecture Theatre C, Avenue campus