Call for papers

The 1st PhD Workshop on the Economics of Migration is organized by the Economics Division of the University of Southampton in order to give PhD students an opportunity to share their work in a constructive environment, as well as to exchange the results of recent research in different fields of migration economics.

Submissions are particularly welcome on topics concerning:

- International and return migration
- Migration and development
- Social networks
- Brain drain
- Migration policies

Submissions of full original papers are invited by December 31, 2014.
Submissions and inquiries should be addressed by email to:
econmigr@soton.ac.uk.

Decisions about acceptance for presentation in the conference will be communicated by January 15, 2015.

Participation in the workshop is free and meals will be provided, although participants are expected to seek their own funding for travels and accommodation. Participants will receive updates on the workshop and a full programme as soon as possible.

The event is supported by the ESRC Centre for Population Change and the School of Social Sciences of the University of Southampton.
