

MS 17

A20 Eulogies in praise of Nathaniel Vechner

A small, leather bound volume containing eulogies in praise of Nathaniel Vechner (or Vechnerus), each containing a short quotation from the scriptures, the classics or other sources (in Hebrew, Latin, Greek, French, Italian, German and English), followed by verse in praise of Nathaniel Vechner, signed and dated by each author, 1646-55. Among the many scholars who contributed an entry to Vechner's book were Johannes Buxtorf (Basle, Sep 1653), Manasseh ben Israel of Amsterdam, and two fellows of Pembroke College, Cambridge, Abraham Clifford and John Clerk, in May 1654.