

A Screening of Peter Lilienthal's

David

Tuesday, 20 November 2007
Lecture Theatre A
6pm

Winner of the Golden Bear at the 1979 Berlin Film Festival and several other awards, David tells the story of a rabbi's son growing up in Berlin in the years of the Nazi regime.

"One recognises the director in his tenderness towards his characters, in the precision of the deceptively small gestures, in his warmth and engagement" (Hans-Günther Pflaum, 1999)

The director Peter Lilienthal will be present for a Q&A session following the screening.
