Following an extensive review, the Faculty of Medicine has changed and updated the undergraduate mini-CEX and renamed it the Assessment of Clinical Competence (ACC)

Aims

This session is designed to give staff the opportunity to:

- Consider the theory behind clinical assessments
- Learn about the review of the undergraduate mini-CEX and how it has changed to the ACC
- Score an ACC assessment and compare scores with colleagues
- Practise giving specific and constructive feedback to students following an ACC

Methods

The session will involve a participatory and interactive approach to learning

A training event open to clinical teachers working with BM students
