17	Surrender of the remainder of a lease for twenty one years, acquired from Benjamin Light of Baddesley, and John Staite of New Sarum, Wiltshire, by Henry Temple, second Viscount Palmerston, to Dr Harry Lee, warden of St Mary College, Winchester, and the clerks and scholars, of property in Romsey extra	31 Oct 1780
18	Deed of appointment between (1) George Nevill, seventeenth Earl Abergavenny, (2) the Hon. Henrietta Nevill, his daughter, (3) Sir John Berney of Kirby Bedon, Norfolk, granting Sir John Berney, the intended husband of the Hon. Henrietta Nevill, £5000 as her marriage portion and the authority to claim the money from Henry John Temple third Viscount Palmerston. Lord Abergavenny was the widower of Henrietta, who had herself previously been the widow of Richard Temple, and under the terms of her marriage settlement, and as the sole heir of her son by that marriage, Thomas Temple, was entitled to £12000, charged on the Broadlands estate, which had not been paid in full. This sum was her own marriage portion on her marriage to Lord Abergavenny, and was mostly settled, by marriage articles, on her younger children. This deed therefore empowers the Hon. Henrietta Nevill, her daughter by this marriage, and her future husband, Sir John Berney, to obtain the money from Henry John Temple third Viscount Palmerston. The deed is endorsed on the back that Sir John Berney and the Hon. Henrietta, Lady Berney, received the money from Henry John Temple third Viscount Palmerston (see BR 157/33/1-2 for the pre-nuptial settlement of Richard Temple and Henrietta Pelham)	6 Aug 1779: endorsement 9 Sep 1779
