

Music
Student Lunchtime Concert Series

presents

New Music Ensemble

Friday 30 November 2012

1pm

Turner Sims

In C (1964)

Terry Riley
(b. 1935)

Five Monuments for Our Time

Matthew Shlomowitz
(b. 1975)

Students from the University's Music Department perform
Music from the 20th century, following intensive workshops with University of Southampton composer Ben Oliver.

Catherine Waithe-Arnold – Flute

Catherine Underhill – Oboe

Clarice Goff – Clarinet and Bass Clarinet

Matt Scatterfield – Trumpet

Marios Stylianou – Trombone

Chris Evans – Piano and Organetta

Carmen King- Violin

Gail Strong - Violin

Elizabeth Yu – Viola

Damien Bouvier – Electric Guitar

Mark Dyer – Guitar

Chris Nash – Electric Guitar

Ben Jameson – Electric Guitar and Banjo

Greg Mudd – Double Bass

Joe Manghan – Percussion

Eliot Curtis – Drums and percussion

Conductor: Ben Oliver

Music
Professional Lunchtime Concert Series

Next concert

Thy Trembling Strings

A concert of Regency music for harp and harp-lute on authentic instruments of the period.

Sarah Deere-Jones (harp, harp-lute and voice) will talk about the development and connection between these instruments, and perform the domestic repertoire of the time with Phil Williams (parlour guitar and Northumbrian pipes).

Monday 3 December 2012

1pm

Turner Sims

Free admission