A RECENT REVIEW:

"For home or office use there is no better or handier little all-round reference book than the Concise Pocket Encyclopædia, published by Messrs. Asprey & Co., Ltd. It manages to compress the maximum of useful information within the minimum of space, yet is clearly printed and interestingly written. It is well described, for it really is an 'encyclopaedia,' it really is 'concise,' and it really is of a size convenient for the pocket. Printed on thin but opaque paper it is easy to read, and, nicely bound in cloth, is wonderful value for sale at 3s."

Wednesday, January 1
Ulriksdal.

New Year's Day.

This is a "church" holiday in Sweden so we stayed in. I went for a walk with Louise in the afternoon. We all had tea with the King at Drottningholm. Played childish games after dinner.

Thursday, January 2

Ulriksdal.

Gustaf & Louis took Edwina & me to see the quite exquisite modern Town Hall, where we spent most of the morning.

went to look at the Law Court after.

The British Minister (Sir Howard Kennard) & his wife came to lunch. went shopping in the afternoon. Louise took us to her own arriving film of Buster Keaton's called "The Pale Court" to Count Falloz Bernadotte (Gustaf's cousin) & his American wife & her brilliant countess

Friday, January 3

Ulriksdal

Gustaf & Louise drove Söderman & we to Uppsala (40 miles, odd, North) where we saw the Cathedral (spoilt by bad restoration) & its five old vestments. We also visited the university & the old Archibishop who made the famous
"brassers" remark & saw the "drawers" in question.

We motored on to Fjölna & had lunch with Father Bernadotte's elder brother & his wife. It took us over 2 hours motoring back as the road was skiddy in places.

Played the drawing game after dinner.

Saturday, January 4

Utrikesdal.

Gustaf & Sonja took us to Zu 2.
 churches, one with the arms of all Knights of the Scaphum - the other with the finest old colored wooden statue (of St. George & the Dragon)
 I have yet seen.

We gave them & Ingmar
 her present from Lamm & Stina Rosinvent & Captain Lägerström lunch at the Cecil. Afterwards we dropped & met again at "Utrike's Eugen's" for tea.

We went to the Opera & Ballet to-night - Cavalleria Rusticana &
 "Coppelia" - Anna Pavlova.

Utkrash Sunday, January 5

2nd S. after Christmas

Stayed in bed. Played at tin soldiers with Johnny's Gustaf, Victor Erback and his niece Anna came to tea.

Played round games after dinner.

6
Ulriksdal Monday, January 6

Epiphany.

Louise & Steen took Edwina & me to Drottningholm to see the delightful & perfectly preserved
18th Century Throne & the Crimson Parlour.

After luncheon Gustaf & Hornie let us for a walk.

After dinner 10 of us went to the Cinema - Griffith's production with Lupton Valley of Paris in 1868.

Edmund returned

Tuesday, January 7

Utriksdal - In the train (Stockholm to Berlin)

We were photographed by press photographers & then went into Stockholm shopping.
all lunched at an aiming Restaurant in a 300 year old cellar behind the Palace called "The Cellar of Peace" in Swedish. We went over the Royal Rooms at the Palace.

After tea we looked at some of Gustaf's world tour albums.

They invited us in to catch the 9:15 train to Berlin.

Very sad at parting.

Wednesday, January 8

~~In the train from Stockholm, Berlin.~~

We crossed, as before, in the large train ferry (4 hours) from Täkholma to Söderby & then over the islands & in the small ferry ($\frac{1}{4}$ hour)
to Stockholm.

We got to the Settlers station
Berlin at 7.40 & drove to the Adlon Hotel. We had dinner in our rooms & went to a very good variety show at the Stahl.

Afterwards we went to a smart
but dull dance place "Casino".

Berlin

Thursday, January 9

walked down Unter den Linden or visited "Kaufstadt" Store - very lively.
Dinner at Eden Grill.

Saw "The White Hell" an UFA film at the "Kammerlichtspiel" Movie place - Both Film & place lovely.
Went to Hagenbeck's Circus at "Circus Krone" - The best turn was a High School Riding Act by Fil. Lydia Wallenstein. Very sweet & Edmund to come as the last circus.
Went to the Casino Cafe, the "Anti" Cafraach & the modern places
"Eldorado".

Berlin.

Friday, January 10

Got up v. early - went to Tempelhof aerodrome & flew with Mr. Müller (late gunner RFC) to Dessaix in Professor Frankel's private aeroplane as a trial flight & to see the works.
