Adrian

Fetched Edwina & Mary at Southampton.
 Fannie came down for lunch. After lunch Fannie & I went for a ride.
 Fannie had again armed her heels with a pair of very sharp Spurs, which she used very freely. She got Carola short by the head at a canter and then dug her spurs in quite mercilessly until they were dripping with blood. Fannie spurred Carola almost continuously for over half an hour until Carola showed some signs of minding the spurs.
 I must say Carola was a changed pony when she had finished with her and really was lively, handy and quick off the mark.
 Patricia went for her first ride on Mary Pratt's little Shetland Pony.

Sunday, October 31

Caldsden.

22nd S. after Trinity.

Edwin & Pillus played golf in the morning. Mary slept till lunch Jean & I rode. She wore her ravel spurs again for both Searchlight and Carola but only really used them hard on the latter. Although Carola's flanks must have still been sore from Jeanie's spurs, it was not until she had spurred them bloody again to-day that Carola really jumped forward at every prick of Jeanie's "persuaders". Jeanie motored back to London after lunch. We other 4 played golf (a foursome). Pillus left with a friend of his who called for him, Wallington, after tea.

Monday, November 1

Walsden.

Fox Hunting begins.
Stock Exchange Holiday.

Tennis lesson 10-11-45. Then I rode with Edwina, changing ponies at half time. Carol is a changed pony and leapt forward under Edwina's blunt spurs as though they had been James'
sharp ones, though this was doubtless due to her flanks being ~~very~~ sore after two consecutive days of almost incessant rowelling.

In the afternoon Patricia again rode.
She seems to have taken a natural liking to it. Dick Crichton & Miss Lindenhill came for lunch & are staying the night. Edwina & I had tea with the Bishop of Chichester & afterwards she went to Lardon
while I returned to Walsden.

Had a tennis lesson. Edwina had a golf lesson in the afternoon. Fannie drove down for a very late lunch in boots and breeches. She tried ~~a~~ new pair of "persuaders" on Carlo - much longer in the back & with rowels a clear $\frac{1}{4}$ " long. It was raining & rather unpleasant but Fannie succeeded in going Carlo again with the new spurs. - Each time she rides Carlo he more improves and it is my plucky of Fannie to stick to it. Edwina, Fannie & I had a long discussion about her (Fannie's) future, in the evening.

Tuesday, November 16

Caldsdean, + Lardar

Jeanie & I were called at 8.30 & rode at 9.
 It was Jeanie's last chance to school Carola
 & she made the most of it. She had her doubly sharp spurs on and took Carola at a slow canter twice round the race track and for thirty minutes never stopped jabbing her spurs into Carola's flanks. Her spurs were so sharp and she used them so incessantly that she simply smothered the pony's flanks in blood. A ride the pony is not likely to forget in a hurry &
 one which I hope will cure her for life.

We returned to Lardar unchanged - all 3 of us.
