 in early morning and June 16 and Helen left in 10:15 cold & good. I took my 3:30 for a walk in breeze & wind but Helen stopped it.
 Stopped and PAMMY and I spent rest of the afternoon in the garden. Golfing in hot full sun and having a delightful peach and beautiful dog PAMMY with a badly infected leg.

Called at 4.15 PM. I woke at 3 and so got up and did a lot of work. We washed off in the open car leaving at 6.15 PM. We went to the airport and had a lovely drive down to Aumbala, cool and bright and beautiful views. Dined at the Jakhola Diner and part of Aumbala and flew up to Kashmir at 11.30 PM. I H.H. and Her H. at the Palace. Stayed in the "Mistral" out to the beautiful Gardens Shalima and wished for lunch and dinner in the evening

 Glad was seen and we thought. Good spot - Duke and I each got a 3 1/2 lb and he got a lot of smaller ones.

Lunched out there and lay and sun bated after. Snow peaked mountains all around. Poplars and cherries quite beautiful Fished till very late and drove on our return about 10 P.M.

Keshmu Friday, June 20 Dachu Gai

Spent all the day out beyond a point behind the large lake called Dachu Gai Valley. H.H. has got a large house there surrounded with delicious garden surrounded by mountains etc. In the afternoon we fished and saw the lake surrounded by beautiful mountain peaks and also on the way there saw the first Hatcheries with and was not far up to the head of the Valley. I got the trout and the rough back and saw Bear Lion Dicks and H.H. tried to get one but did not succeed.
and we were very late

QUARTER DAY (Midsummer Day)

This June has been the hottest as far as the nights are concerned for the last 25 years with a minimum average night temp. of 58° by thermometer and sunpots and with suffering witnesses and hard work in the morning and a few people for lunch. The same in the afternoon. Had a dinner of 86 for "Moose" also a celebration. Sunday tomorrow. All went off very well.

Dick is 47th birthday. We had a good deal of work and started by seeing Monty off at 8:30. Mrs. and me up also.

Took a drive and did some shopping with him and with parking in the evening and returned covered with dust and sweat.
Had a "half" dinner
followed by a 9 a.m. film
"fixe".

Along dg and hot-dust and exhaust. We left d-8-K-G to go to Gurgaon and see the Civil Hosp and special typical unit who have been drafted in to deal with Riot-victims. Topic cases had a meeting with Relief Managers. Then on with Jesul Commission to Nuh to see Refugee Centre in school and Ins Pansar with thorates of all kinds. Very sad state of affairs.
Back of Polwal, called on Thomas and Bill Green at 8.30 H.P.

 stick and everyone dropped and killed. The women did die and walk all the
 and a bunch part and in all ended by being Grease spots. I talked with the Colin Reed for some time "Daily Telegraph". Then had a lunch with Van Scott he disposed of the dog.
 Hottest night of all (think about 94°)

New Delhi Sunday, June 29

4th Sunday after Trinity

A much cooler day and rain at least at night. Thermometer dropped to 99° and 83° respectively. Different word!
Spent brief morning doing a little work with Mr. Scheffer.
And we all three punched at the Pool and I really lay in the sun which could be seen for once.
Walter Markson to get up Junker with Governor H. Miller who is still here and a few others.
